Eclipses 1922

There will be but two eclipses in 1922, the least number possible, and as always the case in such an instance, both must be of the Sun. They are as follows:

I. Annular, Meh. 28, visible in the U. S. only in Peninsular Florida and exceedingly small, near sunrise. The annular belt runs through the equatorial regions of S. America and Africa, crosses the Suez Canal, terminating at the Persian Gulf.

II. Total Sept. 20-21, invisible in the U. S. The belt of totality runs from the east coast of Equatorial Africa across the Indian Ocean, crosses Australia and terminates near New Zealand.

A RISING BAROMETER.

A rapid rise indicates unsettled weather.
 A gradual rise indicates settled weather.
 A rise with dry air and cold increasing in summer indicates wind from the northward; and if rain has fallen, better weather may be expected.
 A rise with moist air and a low temperature indicates wind and rain from the northward.
 A rise with southerly winds indicates fine weather.

A STEADY BAROMETER.

With dry air and seasonable temperature indicates a continuance of very fine weather.

A FALLING BAROMETER.

A rapid fall indicates stormy weather.
 A rapid fall with westerly wind indicates stormy weather from the northward.
 A fall with a northerly wind indicates storm, with rain and hail in summer, and snow in winter.
 A fall with increased moisture in the air, and heat increasing, indicates wind and rain from the southward.
 A fall with dry air and cold increasing in winter indicates snow.
 A fall after very calm and warm weather indicates rain with squally weather.
 The barometer rises for northerly winds, including from northwest by north to the eastward for dry, or less wet weather, for less wind, or for more than one of these changes, except on a few occasions, when rain, hail or snow comes from the northward with strong wind.
 The barometer falls for southerly wind, including from southeast by south to the westward, for wet weather, for stronger wind or for more than one of these changes, except on a few occasions, when moderate wind, with rain or snow, comes from the northward.

SMALL CRAFT, STORM AND HURRICANE WARNINGS.

Small Craft Warning.	N. E. Winds.	S. E. Winds.	N. W. Winds.	S. W. Winds.	Hurricane.

SMALL CRAFT WARNING.—A red pennant indicates that moderately strong winds are expected.
STORM WARNINGS.—A red flag with a black center indicates a storm of marked violence.
 The pennants displayed with flags indicate direction of wind—red, easterly; white, westerly; pennant above flag indicates wind from northerly quadrants; below, from southerly quadrants.
 By night a red light indicates easterly winds, white light below red, westerly winds.
 Two red flags with black centers indicate approach of tropical hurricanes.
 No night smallcraft or hurricane signals are displayed.

A standard of time was established by mutual agreement in 1883, by which trains are run and local time regulated. According to this system, the United States extending from 65° to 125° west longitude, is divided into four time sections, each of 15° of longitude, exactly equivalent to one hour, commencing with the 75th meridian. The first (eastern) section includes all territory between the Atlantic Coast and an irregular line drawn from Detroit to Charleston, S. C., the latter being its most southern point. The second (central) section includes all the territory between the last-named line and an irregular line from Bismarck, N. D., to the mouth of the Rio Grande. The third (mountain) section includes all territory between the last-named line and nearly the western borders of Idaho, Utah and Arizona. The fourth (Pacific) section covers the rest of the country to the Pacific Coast. Standard time is uniform inside each of these sections, and the time of each section differs from that next to it by exactly one hour. Thus at 12 noon in New York City (eastern time), the time at Chicago (central time) is 11 o'clock A. M.; at Denver (mountain time), 10 o'clock A. M., and at San Francisco (Pacific time), 9 o'clock A. M. Standard time is 16 minutes slower at Boston than true local time, 4 minutes slower at New York, 8 minutes faster at Washington, 19 minutes faster at Charleston, 28 minutes slower at Detroit, 18 minutes faster at Kansas City, 10 minutes slower at Chicago, 1 minute faster at St. Louis, 28 minutes faster at Salt Lake City, and 10 minutes faster at San Francisco.

Information for Business Men

DEMAND NOTES are payable on presentation, without grace, and bear legal interest after a demand has been made, if not so written. An endorser on a demand note is helden only for a limited time, variable in different States.

A NEGOTIABLE NOTE must be made payable either to bearer, or be properly endorsed by the person to whose order it is made. If the endorser wishes to avoid responsibility, he can endorse "without recourse."

A JOINT NOTE is one signed by two or more persons, who can each become liable for the whole amount.

NO GRACE is allowed in the majority of States on time notes after the time for payment expires. If not paid when due, the endorser, if any, should be legally notified to be holden.

NOTES FALLING DUE ON SUNDAY, or on a legal holiday, must be paid the day following as a rule.

ALTERING A NOTE in any manner, by the holder, makes it void.

NOTES GIVEN BY MINORS are void.

THE MAKER OF A NOTE that is lost or stolen is not released from payment if the amount and consideration can be proven.

NOTES OBTAINED BY FRAUD, or given by intoxicated persons, cannot be collected.

AN ENDORSER has a right of action against all whose names were previously on a note endorsed by him.

A BILL OF EXCHANGE OR DRAFT is an order drawn by one person or firm upon another, payable either at sight or at a stated future time.

A note dated on Sunday is void. An endorser of a note is exempt from liability if not served with notice of its dishonor within 24 hours of its non-payment. Notes bear interest only when so stated. Principals are responsible for their agents. Each individual in partnership is responsible for the whole amount of the debts of the firm. Ignorance of the law excuses no one. It is a fraud to conceal a fraud. It is illegal to compound a felony. The law compels no one to do impossibilities. An agreement without a consideration is void. Signatures in lead pencil are good in law. A receipt for money is not legally conclusive. The acts of one partner bind all the others. Contracts made on Sunday cannot be enforced. A contract with a minor is void. A contract made with a lunatic is void. Written contracts concerning land must be under seal.

DEPOSITS OF MONEY in a bank placed to the credit of depositors are always subject to their check for full amount due.

EXAMPLE.—To ascertain at what hour it will be high tide at Sandy Hook on the 1st of July, find first the time of high water at New-York under that date, and then subtract 32 minutes, as found in above table opposite Sandy Hook; the result is the time of high water required.

Help in Case of Accidents

DROWNING.—1. Loosen clothing, if any. 2. Empty lungs of water by laying body on its stomach, and lifting it by the middle so that the head hangs down. Jerk the body a few times. 3. Pull tongue forward, using handkerchief, or pin with string, if necessary. 4. Imitate motion of respiration by alternately compressing and expanding the lower ribs, about twenty times a minute. Alternately raising and lowering the arms from the sides up above the head will stimulate the action of the lungs. Let it be done gently but persistently. 5. Apply warmth and friction to extremities. 6. By holding tongue forward, closing the nostrils, and pressing the "Adam's apple" back (so as to close entrance to stomach), direct inflation may be tried. Take a deep breath and breathe it forcibly into the mouth of patient, compress the chest to expel the air, and repeat the operation. 7. DON'T GIVE UP! People have been saved after HOURS of patient, vigorous effort. 8. When breathing begins, get patient into a warm bed, give WARM drinks, or spirits in teaspoonfuls, fresh air, and quiet.

SUNSTROKE.—There are two important indications for treatment—reduction of temperature and the use of stimulants. The patient should first be removed to a cooler spot if possible, or at least where shade can be secured. The treatment should be begun at once. The clothing about the neck and body must be either loosened or removed. Cold is particularly indicated in cases where there is great heat of the body, and delirium and convulsive movements are present. This means of reducing the temperature may be applied in the shape of cracked ice about the head and spine, or the use of cold water. If the heat of the body is very great, it may be necessary to wrap the patient in sheets wet with cold water. If there is, besides the great heat, evidence of serious depression, stimulants must be used while the cold is being applied.

BURNS AND SCALDS.—Cover with cooking soda, and lay wet cloths over it. Whites of eggs and olive oil. Olive oil or linseed oil, plain, or mixed with chalk or whiting. Sweet or olive oil and lime-water. Shock, which is always present in severe burns, requires the administration of stimulants. Pain is more constant and intense in burns than in any other form of injury, and requires sedatives, which should be administered by the medical attendant. Later on the appearances of inflammation and other complications are to be carefully watched for.

HÆMORRHAGE.—The usual treatment is rest in the recumbent position; small pieces of ice should be freely swallowed, and the application of ice wrapped in a towel, or in an ice-bag, or snow, cold water, etc., over the stomach; hot applications may be applied to the extremities.

FIRE IN A BUILDING.—Crawl on the floor. The clearest air is the lowest in the room. Cover head with woolen wrap, wet if possible. Cut holes for the eyes. Don't get excited.

Wea. SUN. JAN. 1, 1922 Ther.

So here I am in bed - a nice way to start a year which I hope will be an even better one. I have the dangly fever - every one gets it here so now I belong to the "aristocracy" of Haddon. Dr. Hare came to see me - gave me news of Chicago.
Mother and I have compared our symptoms and find that we must be exactly the same - this terrible ache in every atom of my body giving me no rest - and the day begins so slowly - was allowed to poke her head in for a minute at least, we are not forgotten - but oh, today, nothing seems to matter much - my temperature 104° and Mother's 103° - Can it be better, Jack you

Wea. MON. JAN. 2, 1922 Ther.

Another day to lie under the mosquito netting and on a hard, weary bed and to slowly count the hours on the clock in the cathedral. And it is a holiday and all the darkies are jumping (yelling?) - that is, they are mob parading & drunk & making as much noise as possible with cannells - very much in possible. I found myself looking forward to the coming of the Dr.
Mrs. Field brought us some jelly - very sweet-with she & the jelly. Also she brought some in and eat on the foot of my bed and which are very bragging. She did not say much about her Porters - "Dimples" and did not seem to care, but I showed her the famous one.

Wea. TUES. JAN. 3, 1922 Ther.

Some mail this morning
- a letter from dear old Hugh - I do love him!
Also one from Miss Hampy - full of school news.
But it caused too much excitement and I felt worse. Mother is very restless & nervous every five minutes till I could scream with anxiety. Dad looks after her very casually & makes no attempt at entering in. Nothing tastes good - cigarette smoke bothers me.
I had resolved to give up smoking on the first but I could not so have resolved - I couldn't!
But word to sheagh not to come today - temperature soars again and I'm given more sweating powder. Horrid.
Mrs. & Trebigh sent roses.

Wea. WED. JAN. 4, 1922 Ther.

Nervous! feeling very fit once more - really! my temperature is normal and life seems sweeter than I dreamed possible a few days ago. The Dr. came for the last time said I might get up tomorrow. More than too - not as nice though as a hateful "lose" letter from Jimmie Mulford which the joy out of it all.
Thank goodness all my "facts" about turn out as he was - when stop the game I like them to stop - not before either! Shouldn't come in for a short visit all seems to be full of engagements. But forget it today I have slept away - also feel sleep when I dream in well and with Hugle or some one as nice.

Wea. THUR. JAN. 5, 1922 Ther.

Awake early - as usual but with a feeling of a great event going to happen - so it is I another and I are getting up! Dad had gone down town and we ventured forth only to be greatly surprised at our weakness. We somehow got properly clothed and settled in chairs in the front room. Shela & Arty in + about our prizes. In the afternoon I typed up my book. Later
"Dimples" came to see me - jolly nice. And after supper the whole family - Mrs. Field, Miss Chapman
- Miss Baldwin called.
Finished "Fringes of the Heart" when they left. It is an unique story & I

I'm feeling so much stronger that I manage to "eye-brow" and manicure. And then I settled myself comfortably among pillows and started "Love on Smokey River" by Mrs. P. Roberts. In the afternoon quite unexpectedly Dimples & Pickford dropped in to see me. I fed them the candy which good old Hagley Peter sent me and let them do the talking - too much of an effort for me to try to be witty etc.!! They told me that Shelagh is in bed again - poor dear, it is just so bad. Wrote to Bea to send me a kiss - they evidently don't believe in diaries in Mass. don't blame them - nothing to write about. Wrote to Phil, a rather dull letter.

I am still breakfasting in bed but feel almost natural again. Frances will be sorry when I'm well - she likes playing nurse. Read & wrote letters - to Mrs. Stewart & a nice long one to Hagley. In the afternoon I bravely pulled as far as the fold and no one was at home. So I sat patiently on the porch & waited for Molly Brown to come to see me. She is a dear & kind, aunt, maid & Niece boy. Walked home with her & stop at the fold again. After supper I sat on porch in moonlight & played all alone on my mandolin & then went over to the fold & played their victrol - all by myself. They were out - it was perfect.

Went over to the beach against my own order and felt like a new woman, after word!
It is really marvelous the difference in my disposition! Miss Baldwin went with me - she is very dear.
On the afternoon I got delightful letters from Phil & from Mary

Dimple came & carried me off for a ride. He parked by the old fort & he kissed me - it's not so bad, you know.
Every thing is better!!
The sun is shining mood is shining, too.

After supper I read
"Mae" by H. G. Wells.
Went to bed - not to sleep but to think about things.

Went over to the beach
again - water fine, very one, so a preliminary.
Molly & Mrs. Beard, a great English woman were there. In the afternoon I sewed & knocked quilts at the table for the "old man" who is still sick, alias, I mean my. Then I went to Field's armistice studio playing with Mrs. Field. Dimple was there & asked me to a dance next Saturday!
Hurrah! Then I went in the rain to see Shelaigh still in bed. Miss Gosh & Miss. Were there - English & nice, and after the last Shelaigh & I had a nice little chat.
She is much better & more cheerful. Read

Went down town to do a little shopping - it is so cold I got to the beach. I kept in to see Phyllis, but she did not seem very cordial, but Molly was as sweet as ever. During the afternoon I could not get settled at any thing. Molly was supposed to come early & see, but Dimples came first & took me out west where I sat by the rocks & knitted while he worked. He picked me up on way back & we had tea. Later Dimples came back, Mrs. Field was here too and said we might all use victrol at her house that night. So Molly & Pat & I went to the empty fold & later Dimples came - whole house & ourselves. and not so thrilling.

It is still cold but the glorious sunshine has returned. Molly asked me to walk - Dimples was there with Phyllis when we left. We went to Fort Win castle & Queen Anne's staircase. ate biscuits & talked in timately. She is a dear - and when we came back Phyllis was decidedly cool. In the afternoon I painted a Camp scene and Ma & I went calling - on the Porteouses & I sat at home and Mrs. Bullock. They went back to see if Phyllis was any nicer & no - is it because she has been sick? No! there's something else in the air. Sat in the wonderful moon light & played rummy for a long time & then wrote a very nice long letter to Phil.

Went over to the beach at ten and stayed until five - an awfully long day. The Deans took the lunch and Al sat with us. His aunt came along and read our palms - said I was a flirt - whereupon Howard began to tease me. The "candy kids" hunched on the beach too with Pat & Bill & Blanche, etc. Also little Ruth was there with the "children" from the hotel. We had a "cagey book" - "A Parody on History" by Dean Ogden Stewart which was very clever and which convinced us when read aloud by Al. When we got home Miss Thorne and I had a round of golf. After supper Al took me down to the hotel for a grill party with the Deans. They asked us to sit with us - good of them. The "candy kids" had some trouble with their "ugly" and went home. I had glorious time.

Such a perfect day - I went to natural's church, the beach. There was a good bunch of us there - I rode Bill's back under water! In the afternoon Bill & Prudy came by to get his moped, so we took mine too and went down to Prudy's and had a picnic. Later we strolled down to the hotel gardens in search of excitement but nothing aroused me till Howard & Maria Dean came & sat down near us. Al came in. So I tactfully left my party & joined theirs and soon went home to make sandwiches for the four of us on a picnic tonight. We got a car and we went to a dear little cafe. First, Howard took me into the Harmonian Club & showed me how to lose $15! Fun! He & I sat in back seat - wonder for midnight!

Had golf lesson and intended to practice alone, but lost my nerve, so came home, undecided what to do & found I was invited to watch the regatta from Mr. Willcox's yacht. Hale Steinman & his wife & bride went with us and added much to the party. Blanche was there & some older ones. The Steinmans came home to lunch with us & just as we sat down, Cyril Firth came to say good-bye - the "Constance" sails today - so he had lunch with us but forgot. Al brought Mr. & Mrs. & Charles in to see the cottage. What a meal! And they wish them to go to the Cleveland picnic. sailed to quarantine, Island - old & young - lots of food & cocktails. Bill & I provided for a getting party - my wife and later my girls went in the water makes! Lordy! it was great! The boys went in up a little distance. ^{travels in golf on return & more} got a valentine from Dad - old dear now, forgets. Then I caught the 10 o'clock boat with Al & the Deans. Every one at the beach today - Leo has a little cur puppy. Danced with Bill in bathing suits! In the afternoon Al & the Deans came up to get me to go shopping with them - we slept & slept and had a lemonade in the garden - saw the crowd there and said good-bye to the Inuites - so old they are going. Then we found our pictures taken by Fred from water postcards. Later they came up here to tea which I brewed on the spur of the moment. Did not play golf as I should have. After supper Bill came up & we played our way and then went to the hotel & danced. Had table with Al & Kerue & Cyril.

Rain early in morning so I got up and decided about my golf practice and went to see Mally instead, for a few minutes before going to the Colonial dance to meet a picnic party. Mr. Wilcox took a lot of us to Sandy Cay to swim and eat. The Deans were with us and good company. Tudy, Ed, Blanche, Cynthia, Bruce, John, Bill and Al and a few older people. We had a great time. I ate and ate and smoked and smoked. John & Tudy are getting along famously. I sat in the garden when we got back instead of practicing my golf - second time. After supper I went to the dance with Al - Tudy had another dinner party. And everyone was rather peppy. Al is a dear.

Woke up early & saw rain & heard wind, swore and went to sleep again - I was to have had a picnic today "we four" all day on the beach - bah! Later I was awakened by Al's voice in the next room. The good deer waited till I was dressed and then we met the Deans and went down town. In the afternoon I borrowed a car again and took me & the Deans & Charlie in many for a lovely drive out to Linnest Bay. I sat in front and enjoyed every minute of it. Al bought me a huge bunch of roses! On our trip we stopped & went in three different caves. Came up there for some cases & then went to the hotel gardens for a drink. After supper Bill came up & we played in & then went to bed & danced & joined Deans & Al in a great very nice have hers done now!

We took it down to the hotel to show it off.
Gladys when we went to her room, raved nicely.
After supper I sat in my room and sewed mattress cover + made up about ab.

Wea. MON. MARCH 20, 1922 Ther.

Beau's bir. to day - thirty years old! Blanche came up again and we sat on the porch - she, reading, I sewing. At times I slip up and again I do not.
In the afternoon she came back again, this time with Gladys, whom I'd invited to come pop to sew. We sewed + chatted and had tea - of which later B. derived the most benefit! Then B. took us to hotel where we dropped Paddy + John and drove him out to his house. He gave us some roses and even then we couldn't lose him and he came back with us to town. His name caught get rather on my nerves. After supper Pat + I went to hotel - played bridge, sewed + dressed once with John. Later

Wea. TUES. MARCH 21, 1922 Ther.

got a letter from Al!! Bliss!
It was typically Al too, sounded like a brother and now I love him even more!
Blanche took her & Gladys & me out to play golf but it was so very hot we could not get up much enthusiasm. She came for us just before it rained and we sat in the hotel and played bridge.
Glad asked me to have lunch with her, which I enjoyed. Then Blanche took Leo, Paddy, Glad & me out in the Ford for a beach run and sweet beyond Johns. We had to walk along a dark path to get to it - just like Bellefonte! There we swam "mudily" & ate our supper. Got some post after dark. I wrote to Paul & Peter. Read old diary & found sweet same expressions in regard to Paris, Lavinia & Al.

Wea. WED. MARCH 22, 1922 Ther.

Happy birthday, Mathey! I presented her with the unfinished waist, then I rushed to Kelly's to buy her a birthday cake. Just yet exhausted I went out to Westward Ho to see Mully.
He had a copy time till Pat arrived - they are a dear couple. On my way home I stopped at the hotel to see Gladys. In the afternoon Paddy came and I did a sketch of her - quite a good likeness.
It just good enough to make me wish I were really an artist - if only I had let me go to art school instead of these seasonal winter resorts!!
Blanche treated us all to tea later in the hotel garden.
After supper I went to hotel to play bridge with Glad, Blanche and Mully - very good evening. The night

Wea. THUR. MARCH 23, 1922 Ther.

We were going to have a female picnic again but Blancher's father sold the Ford - damn him! Gladys & Blanche came in before I was dressed & we walked to the P.O. for mail and waited for you to get one from Aunt I didn't!! On the way home I lost my little silver belt and, walked all the way back looking for it - in vain! Then we went to hotel & played bridge with Leo & Paddy. I had lunch all by myself - with Al's picture. Went to hotel again & played bridge but could find only Glad - so drove out to get tips with her to get my clubs. Played bridge & had tea in garden later. After supper I went to the hotel again - bridge for the last time, I'm afraid. Mrs. Smith's movie actor called me up. Glad & I beat B. & Leo who had all the money.

Wea. FRI. MARCH 24, 1922 Ther.

Very undecided about going to Hack - cold & windy. Finally got hold of Glad and went to see her, got letter from Brian about houses in N.Y., also said Howard had been in to see him. Had my lunch early and Blanche came in before I had finished & then we went to dock & met Leo, Paddy, Glad & Leo - all going today. John was there too and we went out in the tender to the Turnage - first time for me without my dear little Al! We got on board & Leo, Glad, Blanche & I played bridge! Sat in the tender long before we started & quipped at everyone - everyone is going. Nassau is deserted. John, B. & I went to try at Mally's when we got back. My dice - home made fudge. After supper I wrote to Al. Then I went to deserted hotel & finally got Mr. Litchfield & Mrs. Fisher to play.

Wea. SAT. MARCH 25, 1922 Ther.

Miss Thorne kept for me to play golf. I had some pretty good shots, too.
Our caddies were the funniest part of the game.
I didn't get any letter from Al again - he said he didn't like me but I thought he was joking.
Blanche was here when finished golfing and she + I went down town for mother. She stayed here while I ate and then we wandered into Fred Armstrong's looking for a thermos and finally wandered out of town Charlotte with a lot of food with which we gorged ourselves. I started to read "The Shrike" but mother got mad about it + made an unpleasant evening. I couldn't go to bed because that damn canteen looked so good. I chatted with Dad

Wea. SUN. MARCH 26, 1922 Ther.

Went to church with the family and afterward went to the hotel with the Fenner while Miss Fenner taught me how to crochet belts + gave me some thread with which to work. In the afternoon John took Blanche and Mac and me for a ride we went to Lake Rif-tarny and there got into an old rowboat and poled about the lake. Went to Molly's + tea when we got back - Mr. Yates + Major Fenner were there + when they left we took Mr. + P. for a ride - boat with them. After supper John took me to the hotel - nothing doing - so we got Blanche + Mac + came up here to play bridge - oh Sunday night! What next?

Wea. MON. MARCH 27, 1922 Ther.

Miss Thorne left for me quite early & we went out to play golf & some funny caddies but it was very hot & we were peeples. Then I got my lunch and met Blanche & we went to the beach - the first time I've been there since he left and it was very handsome without him - why, oh, why did he have to go? B & I were the only ones there - even Mrs. Hoff was sick & not there and we were afraid we would not get back - but later the "Capt" came & we were very glad. "The Spirit" which he wrote tho it is a good book - in P. M. Hall. After supper I read "Sheridan Road" by Mary & Paul Thorne. Bed early.

Letter from Al - rejoice!
Wea. TUES. MARCH 28, 1922 Ther.

Look the fine - thirty last to the beach - first person over there - and no Al!! But Mrs. Cameron was there & I sat with her & discussed the field fund who have just left. Later Blanche came over and I swam with her. In the afternoon Mother and I went shopping and then I met Blanche and we sat at hotel wondering what to do when John & Mac showed in & offered us a drink. Later we took a ride & went to a cup of tea at great excitement, everyone all dressed up - Lord Bishop married them! After supper we were four went to the funny movies to see D. Gish & then went to the hotel and played bridge. I & I won - & now he writes me was supposed to go with Miss Thorne, but she didn't want to so later I met Blanco and we went to the beach. We stayed there all day - we had bus of food and actually got to talking on it - we the champion eaters! I finished "the cheeks" - I liked it very much, try and do not think it is as disgusting as they say - Or am I merely morally improving? The sun was very hot - I'm black as a coal! & the shade was cold & the flies were atrocious - but what else is there to do? We thought we'd have to wait for good Mr. Litchfield to come for us but the "Bobby" finally came. After supper we dressed up & B. + I went down + Mac at hotel + played bridge, & danced, & drank

Wea. THUR. MARCH 30, 1922 Ther.

Blanco + I went to the beach in the "Castel" and Mirette, the dog, fell in between the boat & dock! Then she & I swam from the Colonial beach to the Porcupine & back again! In the afternoon I sewed very industriously at home and washed my hair. Later B. just having shaved, came in time for tea. He invited me to go fishing tomorrow with his dad - a fine all day trip, even though we had decided to hang around P.O. tomorrow for mail! I have really gotten to that state of mind in this desert life. It seemed most deserted at hotel too, where we went early & sat around smoking & talking to Brewer + Mr. Litchfield. I tried to write but I feel so damn restless in that ghostly place.

Wea. FRI. MARCH 31, 1922 Ther. Wea. SAT. APRIL 1, 1922 Ther.

Was awakened at 6:40 by mother saying the hotel was on fire!
I dressed + Blanche appeared + we went out to see it - to see if was awful - a colossal bon fire - the whole hotel went for a while we thought the whole town would go, but a southeast wind saved it. We took pictures of it from every angle. After three hours watching I slept on a rusty rail + had to go home + let the dr. see it.
Then John + the white boy came + carried me into the car + with Blanche too we rushed around seeing the smashed cars and empty houses - such wasteful! I wrote to Al in detail + later to Gladys. Got reply from him - no letter from Al - but from Leo, John White and Mary Dean. Blanche + Molly came here to tea - fire the big outlet. My fast cousin + Mary up. John dropped in again before supper. Kitted + went to bed.

The doctor came to fix my foot, which hurt all night
- pers in it. Blanche came and we sat together on the porch, sewing + knitting + smoking. In the afternoon I got in a "buggy" and went down to the wharf where Mr. Litchfield was waiting to take Blanche + me out in the lake with his father.
We had a very nice ride - I noticed that smooth silent engine most of the time. We went to see the hotel ruin along the water front and the sunset + ships in the harbor was magnificent.
After supper John + Mary Blanche came up to play bridge. Pa + I beat the two boys. We all felt rather silly and had a jolly evening - cake + peanuts, + another visitor, a crab!

Reading "Brass" C. G. Morris

Wea. SUN. APRIL 2, 1922 Ther.

The doctor again before I was up. A little later, after breakfast on the front porch - John came to take me to the wharf where we met Pat & Mally, Blanche & Mace; his sister, Francis & her nurse Miss Bergstrom. We went with us so we all piled into a little motor boat & chugged up the narrows. We caught a fish. We landed on Sandy Cay and Pat carried me ashore - two in valid. As Francis is paralyzed. She is most cheerful. I undressed on the boat with her to go in swimming and she says I was the most horrible creature. Poor, dear girl. John & I discussed most everything on the way home - at 6:30 Mr. Litchfield here calling on me & Pa. I read & D. came

Wea. MON. APRIL 3, 1922 Ther.

The doctor came again and then Blanche - she & I occupied the porch and tried to get me to leave so we could smoke - but finally we smoked in her presence. In the afternoon I tried to do a sketch of Mally but it was not a great success. Blanche was here too and we had tea. Later John appeared & Miss Baldwin. The snapshots I took of the fire are very good - Dad has given me his camera. After supper I was playing on the Smith - whole man called up wanting me to see movies of fire but my foot was too lame. I wrote to Beau telling him not to bother about finding a home for this damn fault. John & B. came back & we fought Dad to play bridge & he beat us! Dad & Ambrose called up

Wea. TUES. APRIL 4, 1922 Ther.

Doctor Hess came for the last time. I sat on the porch & finished Ma's record & did a lot of thinking - what a weak vessel I am and what chance of any good I'll ever do. In the afternoon I got a lot of nice mail - Al, Nan in Rome, Gladys and Jimmy Melford. Then Blanche came in & we sat on the porch - I amitting future Billy Reynolds' odds. Mr. Litchfield came to play chess with Dad and B. & I took a carriage to Mally's as it was. Had an engagement. Quickly, Mally was at home & making fudge, so we had a fine time. She lagged a bit in a moment. Drove home. After supper John & Mac & Blanche came up & we had a wild game of bridge - B. & I beat them.

Wea. WED. APRIL 5, 1922 Ther.

The family & Blanche & I went over to the beach in the forenoon - then I decided to go in swimming & bandaged my foot successfully. Water fine! In the afternoon I started to make some fudge but my guests, Blanche, Mally & Francis Portous came before it was finished. We played bridge - Francis & I getting beaten. Then we had tea & played again till John came to take his sister up me. She is a wonderfully cheerful girl with her paralysed. After supper B. came, and I & Fa went to the fire movies & then John, Mac & Paul & Gladys came - we took a drive & the conversation got very evil-minded, then John left us here & we four bridged until nearly twelve.

Wea. THUR. APRIL 6, 1922 Ther.

Went over to the beach in the p.m. - I ran it + stayed at the old workshop for the Damen hauer. Blackie + I did our usual stunts in the water - no fruit any more. In the afternoon I finished sewing socks and then got ready to go to Gov't House garden party with Mully + Blackie.
It was very nice, tea + then claret + cigarettes.
We three played croquet with the German English winners - Joseph, + then B. + I walked home with Mully + learned the scandal at the hospital last night - repulsive John was let to get shot for mentioning it. After supper he + Mac + B. + I took a lovely moonlight ride - and the car home. Paged at chess with Mr. Litchfield etc.

Wea. FRI. APRIL 7, 1922 Ther.

Got into Easter card from Al.
Went to P.O. then took the boat to the beach. It certainly is a different place from a month ago.
But Blackie + I were greatly thrilled by Jack Barrymore being there + our meeting him!!! He is very active but I would not fall for his type. He came back in the Lestell (the shipwright's sail boat) with us. Then B. + I went shopping for a picnic. Wrote a letter. In the afternoon I went to B's + later we went out on the tynde to see his mother off - Mrs.
Valentine + Mr. Litchfield also left - the latter treated us on board. Flirted with cute sailor. W. R. Vanderbilt Jr. + his woman on board!! After supper Mr. Armbruster took us to see his fine pictures - marvelous at chess with Mr. Litchfield etc. + then got Sidney Farrington + took ride

Wea. SAT. APRIL 8, 1922 Ther.

got up at five thirty and soon Mr. Stebbins & B. came in & we looked some break fast & ate it & then we went down town & met Fred Armbruster in his Ford & after a little delay he drove us out to Clinton Bay where we got by the Castrol & went out to sea to fish. It was great sport, but it was too windy to go where we wanted to go & where we were the fish werent biting - we caught only about six & I was tired & five strikes, this & lots of excitement. Drove home & Fred took some pictures. Then we met Oddy & Rex Wetherell & got to play bridge. After supper John, B. & Rex went to the movies & Mac & I, after taking a ride! Then we got out again & I drove - Rex

Wea. SUN. APRIL 9, 1922 Ther.

was supposed to meet B. at the church but I waited so long that when Paul Oddy came I went in with him.
He came in later - read "after a person sin is transgression of law of conscience" - we three went to B's & played victor rampaged!! Then B. came up here to dinner. Later Oddy called up & we went to the Nassau Hotel to play bridge with him & Rex - He said no bridge today! Rex & I won. Mac yes, then, etc. & later we had tea & then climbed the old colonial gate & walked thru the ruins & out to Molly's. After supper Mac & Oddy came up & we decided to take a buggy ride! So we actually got a hack without a driver & off we went. Oddy was quite amusing in back but I got out of it I drove.

Wea. MON. APRIL 10, 1922 Ther.

Stopt for B. & we went over to the beach with our respected (B) fathers.

It is a deserted place now - B. & I are phosyts whom God will not let rot from the haunts of sinners - We went in to see Mac when we got back. In the afternoon I went down town with Mother & her doctor for our spirits. Then Blanco and I walked out to Molly's. Then I drew a lamp shade for her and we had tea including some canned peaches which Bob bought the other day. Then we rode at M.'s house & went to church. Had dinner with her & we met John & he dined with us, too - very jolly. Returned this letter & then took a long lonely ride in the moonlight & we were

Wea. TUES. APRIL 11, 1922 Ther.

Blanco & I went over to the beach with Miss Baldwin - but she went to the next beach, leaving us alone on society's deserted play grounds! We got very evil minded & discussed much. In the afternoon I met her at Fred Armbrister's where we poked our noses into every thing while waiting for him. But finally we got tired went down town for a look at the "shops" & then we wandered out to Molly's. But we met her coming in - that did not account us, for we went on, made ourselves some tea at her house. Later we went to church, & walked around looking for Jack Barry more. After supper she came up & we read - I, "Brass" C. G. Morris

Wea. WED. APRIL 12, 1922 Ther.

Start for Blanche & we rounded our way to the dock, but then decided not to go, as it was cloudy. So we went to a few stores & the Dept Victoria to find my old blue pocket book and then to B's while she attempted a little packing. In the afternoon we went out to Malaga we sat on her porch - quite a porch & talked, knitted & had tea, and a very agreeable afternoon.
Then we went to church & afterwards climbed over fences & ruins to the old colonial water fort where we had a drink with John. After supper John took B., Mac & I & we put for a ride in wading in moonlight, for swam. I drove home, Mac

Wea. THUR. APRIL 13, 1922 Ther.

Happy birth day Dad - gave him a hankie on which I got S.H.C.
Met B. at Fred's studio and we went to the beach - she had the course and put on suit on & baked - the large hare was there too.
B. had luncheon with us, a birthday cake for Dad.
In the afternoon I went with Mac to try on our dresses & skirts & they went over to B's to knit & smoke while she packed.
She is a queer girl - and unusual, so I like her very much. Later we went to church & then to the waterfront as usual & again we met John. After supper John & Mac came for us to take a ride - saw the dear old moon come up. B. & I sang "Forty nine Baths" until J. & M. tried to make us! We broke down & got in a rather humor. Hum!

Good Friday

Wea. FRI. APRIL 14, 1922 Ther.

Blanche appeared bright & early + I washed her hair - just like washing dear old Billie - dog! At twelve Mac went to the three hour
The Dean preached, of course, on the seven words of the Cross, yepso much in the spirit of Lent as in comparing them with our daily lives. Afterward I went over to B's & found, to my joy, that she had actually finished packing. We did a few orhands & then walked out to Mallory's. That was there, comfy in a hammock.
Soon John & Mac strolled in - saw the I was mad, at no!!
Mac walked home with us after supper tho as three came up for me in a buggy as the car is broken down. I drove, they drank. 11:30

Wea. SAT. APRIL 15, 1922 Ther.

Met B. at Fred's again & started for beach. Got mail on way.
Letters from Hugh, Mike, Mrs. Stewart & Al. Al in bad humor, Hugh, strong & husky.
B. & I had beautiful time in bath houses all alone.
In the afternoon B. came up & we did a few orhands in that beg-ing sun - my head ached + I was mad. Her boat won't go till seven, instead of four! Bought flower from a hut tonight. Found dollar bill on pavement!
Met Mac, looked for John's car, finally found it. Car so he took us for a ride. At last minute I decided to go out on tender to Murrumbidgee. Mr. S. mad because B. was almost late. Lovely sunset & moon.
Stayed on big boat many hours, playing bridge - Mac plus B. & me. Hate to see E. go.
Home at 12:15

* Easter -

Wea. SUN. APRIL 16, 1922 Ther.

Ma + I went to eight o'clock communion at the Cathedral - Lord Bishop had the service. Got Easter eggs of Ma, Dad + I went to St. Agnes' later; it was crowded with clean colored people! Only two other whites there - very high church. Pat + Molly came to dinner. It was a nice one + they seemed to enjoy it very much. Pretty soon, John + Mac came to take us all - Ma + Pa too, out to Mrs. Porters' to us. The Dr. Hares were there too. Mary went in giving milk - but my luck, as usual. After supper Smith called up - Ma said I was out, but I was calmly sitting nearby writing names on Kodak pictures.

Wea. MON. APRIL 17, 1922 Ther.

Slept rather late but was very in distress later making over an old blue dress which has already been dyed a couple times. Miss Thorne dropped in. In the afternoon Ma + I went to the dress-makers in all the best + she was not ready for us! But let a gay little basket. Later Molly dropped in to tea. She + Ma + I sewed + gossiped - altho I feel very peppy. The most dainty and best are almost inseparable. I really won't be sorry to leave next week. After supper I pasted things in my memory book. I hated to go to bed cause I knew I'd just be around + wish I were ^{some} where else.

Wea. TUES. APRIL 18, 1922 Ther.

got up late again + then wrote to Blanche as my was, but I also smoked. When you returned me got to work on another old dress. In the afternoon I took a nap + then dressed to go out to John's with Miss Brown Kileen, Hare + Mary + Mary Smith. Kileen is staying out there - oh, yes, Mary went too. We all had a good evening, including Frances. And then had a very nice tea. as we were leaving Porter asked me to stay to dinner so I did. There was a lovely sunset. We admired the new many colored sunset even in front of the white house. Miss Bergstrom + best friends + John at bridge + then I came home with cake + champagne

Wea. WED. APRIL 19, 1922 Ther.

Went down to the docks + met Miss Baldwin who rummaged around + got me a ride to the beach for a turn of back boat + bring the boat. The beach was great and we had a pineapple feast after lunch.
In the afternoon I tried to sew but went to sleep instead. Later I went down town with Mary + rummaged around not knowing what to do with me.
Got a letter from Oddy!
But aside from minor excitements like that, life is very dull. After supper I called up Tom + asked him to walk out to the Flat Hare's with me.
He promptly appeared with a buggy. But Pat + Mary seemed to be rather sleepy - however there were no mosquitoes out there so we stayed - till 10!

got letter + chess book from Mr. Titch

Wea. THUR. APRIL 20, 1922 Ther.

Went over to the beach with Dad, Miss B. and the new hotel promoters - Helen + Allison - very amusing.
The water was simply idea - I would have loved to stay all day.
Did a little shopping when I got back. In the afternoon I sewed a dress, dyed a dress and then spent out to John's with Fred, & Harry to take pictures. But while Fred was photographing I went in swimming with John in one of his suits! We had tea - which is still there. On the way home I ruined one of Fred's films so I had to let him fix me - ugh! - a number of times. It was a gorgeous day, aside from that. After supper was washed in & later Dad played bridge with us & gave us a drink.

Wea. FRI. APRIL 21, 1922 Ther.

Miss Thorne came for me & we got Mally and all there went out to Miss Thorne's, put on our suits, got in a canoe and paddled over to Hag Is.
and had a fine swim.
Almost the whole beach to our cloes. Paddled back again - I in stern this time. In the afternoon I started to draw a picture but John came in and I had to stop. Later I went down to the dock with Tina to say good-bye to Francis but I decided to go out in the tender with her.
Lots of cones went out - Miss Laddery, etc. Francis is so brave I had a hard time getting her in & out of her stateroom. Wish I had known her sooner. John + Miss got tight - I hate them both. Home at 8:30 - no supper.
Played my best.

Wea. SAT. APRIL 22, 1922 Ther.

Raining! No swim! Took around renovating old hats and then settled down + made two sketches. Packed baskets in a basket to carry home. In the afternoon I went down town and I up-at Miss Baldwin's room for a cigarette. Then I went out to Molly's to tea. I sewed diligently and had pleasant time talking to Mr. who is certainly a dear. Pat came home early + they wanted me to dine with them but I came back to Ma - Dad at last - afterwards our prices himself by sewing very hard. Later John + Jim came in to see about a picnic but every one is so peppy we can't it off. I simply cannot stand these weeks, so giddy

Wea. SUN. APRIL 23, 1922 Ther.

Got up early + packed my kit + started off to work the Pat Hares that there is no picnic - they were just going in for a dip so I dressed my suit + went with them. When I lay on the water shed and got a wonderful sun bath - really fed the legs all about me, feeling right close. Nice lazy morning.
Then we three came back to our house to air our trunks + hats + wear yours, and then we started back to the Hares - Mother going with us. Molly + I went in swim using a gain in the day - it was great - while Pat got us ready. After supper I was set on packing but Mac called up + came up - however we had a very nice chat on the porch till late. ^{very funny} but not bad

Underlined by Mary R. Sept 27

Wea. MON. APRIL 24, 1922 Ther.

Got up early & dyed that banned dress again in a hurry to be ready to go to beach with Miss B. But she phoned & we called it off - it is too cloudy & windy. So I packed.
In the afternoon I went to Ed's for pictures & later Miss B. & her took Mary & little Mrs. Boise - the new city council wife, & me, out to see the sea. Then we took a ride - Mrs. B. was pregnant in front - John & I in back. Got home to find John here with a letter from Rome which read. We got Mac & Montagu around, stopping at P.O. & I got me a letter from Leo & Blanco - also her heart. At supper John & Mac came up - Dad gave me a bunch of cigarette holders! J. & M. & I a ride, got very excited & the J. got me terribly excited - with his fingers - right beside Mac! He took

Wea. TUES. APRIL 25, 1922 Ther.

Very bad night - wished I were married! Went down to the docks with Dad in search of a boat to the beach - in vain - so I went out to Mally's for a cool dip & then a baking sun-bath on the water shed. In the afternoon I was out my hair & went down to the docks where I met Mac who was to go with me to the beach to get my bathing suits - but the sudden noise & we had to go across with some horrible black-eyed foot leggers! Said good-bye to Mac & Dad. Mac was a dear & full of war talk. After supper John & Pat came to say goodbye & they took Mac. When the letter & I left Mac's home alone & went for a ride. At St.
Montagu we rough housed - Mac left us & John & I repeated Mac's flight's experience, only more so!
J. saw that day attract me physically! We kissed each other the next day. Mac drove us home the next day with us.

Wea. WED. APRIL 26, 1922 Ther.

Another bad night, during which I slept constantly of John.

Molly came while I was still packing my bag + she spent with me! to say good-bye to the hens + a few last or-rands. Said good-bye to Fred who gave me a lovely new
cigar again! Molly came to the wheel - it was very strange - only a few people going on the boat + as one by the dock. Got a nice note from John. Quite muggy over the sea + we had to crawl into a hole in the side of the ship - into the mouth of a

Mr. Todd, the other passengers with us + wrote to John +

Wea. THUR. APRIL 27, 1922 Ther.

Had salt bath + started the day, sat in the sun on the stern deck and easily watched the parrots + monkeys and thought about the sunny land getting farther behind me. I do not seem to regret my behavior with John - but they at one time I despised him for a weak fool - and a weaker one.
I talked quite a lot to Mr. Todd but is quite a ladies' man but very nice.
It is quite rough and I still have the sea sickness languor so that I take as pleasure in reading or writing in writing all the - I wonder if he will keep his promise + meet me at the dock!
Of the John's tremendous virility, the thought of all is not overwhelping. Went to bed, Todd clearly, obviously

Wea. FRI. APRIL 28, 1922 Ther.

Horrible wind during the night - awoke finally to find the blue skies and the blue water succeeded by gray skies & gray water! Ugh! Now it's a gray day! And it is cold - I'm freezing! Bundled up in a steamer rug & sat on the stern deck. Soon Mrs. Ford joined me, and later Miss B. It is hard to believe now that we reacted under Nassau. In the afternoon, the rain stopped a bit, but the blue did not return nor the parrots & monkeys - we are still getting the land of the Coconuts & looking towards the land of the hills! Ha, ha. I sleep while Mr. & Miss L. write to me, Miss L. & Phylage. After big dinner we walk, talk & smoke.

Wea. SAT. APRIL 29, 1922 Ther.

Lighted land early & docked in Brooklyn! Sorry to say good-bye to Miss B. & Mr. Ford. Landed at about 9:30 and had dinner at in the crowd! He looked so funny at first, city bird! He left just as Bean & Mr. Litchfield arrived! Then I piled into a taxi & came here to 28 E. 74th where we were last year. Then we went down town to look for a dress for Ma. Had lunch at Little France place near here & then waited for Bean to come. He took Ma & me for a bus ride & away out to the Harlem river where we watched the college boat races - Columbia beat Yale - 600-000! We sat at the Waldorf & he treated us to dinner there. Then Bean & I left for a "minute" to try to find Phil. We walked, rode & finally strolled along to Bay & when we reached the family, they were

Al + Ed + took a walk on 5th Ave. Later, we went to the wards to dinner. It was very nice - first the looked at the shops + then, wore out, came home in the afternoon Phil came to take me to the zoo, but he goes as late that I smoked many cigarettes first! It was such a lovely day that we decided to ride, especially as mother was with us. I don't think he wanted her but why not? for his car ramp about me + even if he was, this is not

- you can't stop along the road + walk! The "vice" cops in their fords will get you if you do. After supper, argue life's questions as we dropt Becca + Ma after an run down town - she wasn't at home but we saw Mr.

Johnson who told us Olive is in town. Called her up and after doing a little shopping with Ma, went to Olivia's house to have luncheon with her.
It was great to have see her again. Ma the poor dear has poison ivy all over her face! But her fur bean! Then Phil + G. Mallory came to take me to the big league ball game between the giants + the red Sox. We saw in a box + had great fun. Ma + I dined without Beau at the Hunt room

Wea. WED. MAY 3, 1922 Ther.

Again Ma + I set for the of merely passing time but we each bought a dress! Poor old Dad!

Had lunch at Mary Eliza

+ were resting when Phil arrived - talked, smoked + showed him Nassau pictures until suddenly there was a fire alarm so off we two rushed!
It was a good fire but they do not live long in N. Y. so then Phil + I went over to the Museum of Natural History + killed ourselves therein! Finally rested enough, however, to go with Beau to the Metropolitan Opera House to see the mask + wig play of Pina collega. It was really very good - first I've seen. Girls pretty + graceful! Good music we sat in box with the Wanda!

Wea. THUR. MAY 4, 1922 Ther.

Mom + I didn't wait for Phil but went to the station + bought me a ticket to Greenwich. Then Phil + G.P. turned up + later turned me tell train time. On the train I pondered over many things - why also the Deans haven't called me up. Gladys Armstrong met me at the station + we had lunch at her lovely home - grand + "leaving" just like old Nassau.
Went to movies - "So many young failures" with two of her friends, very nice girls.
Then she + I in all the rain went to Pickwick Arms to see. She is going to announce her engagement on Saturday to Larry Rossiter!! Nice to have seen her - hope she safely. Bean took us to see Francis White in "Gold Diggers" very cute musical comedy.
We nearly drowned in storm.

Wea. FRI. MAY 5, 1922 Ther.

Awakened by a phone call from Mrs. Hartman. It is raining, not around smoking, waiting for Phil. He came at last with Mr. Mallory + Hugh Jingle!!
Poor old Hugh! But they could not stay very long. Mary's Dean called up - Howard in bed with diphtheria. Then Mom + I went to Miss Ward's to lunch.
Miss Cross, Miss Godwin and Mrs. Hough were there too very nice. Phil called me up while there saying Hugh wanted a date Sunday + he'd see me later. So when Miss Ward told me + me to ride in her car I went - very nice, just the two of us - and Phil never showed up. Then we heard from Dad so we packed + later went to the gathering to have dinner with Mr. + Mrs.
Hartman. Bean there too.
Famous dinner + all in good spirits - saw M. Nash in "Captain Jack" - never laughed so hard.

Ma + I hung around waiting for Phil to phone - which he did not after we left. We walked down the ave. to the springs where we had lunch at the French place & then went back to the house where we got with Madam Lombardi - her girls filed, again waiting for Phil. We smoked & they gave us some French cigarettes. Finally we had to leave, with a bus and just made the train by half a minute. Mother was furious. Dad got on the train at Phila. much to our surprise. He has no plans for us - we are at the Stevens house again - for how long. Charlotte asked me to go out to Riley Springs with friends Dot & Gilbert and the Dr. many, Blanche Martin & Jerry.

Went to church - nice to see Mr. Froomey again. Thought I'd never get away - with all the how-de-dos to be said. Went up to Kate's - she is still as dear as ever but much thinner. In the afternoon went up again & we sat in the living & smoked until Charlotte & Johnny & Russell walked in. Haven't seen P. for years. We all got in Charlie's car, including Dick Syrett - Kate's devoted and went out to Long's. More how-de-dos. Went in back yard with Fritz & smoked - damn me! Took J. Matt to train & Lottie took us for ride. Went up to Kate's then & Mr. Felt took us & Russell to club to supper. Later Dick came, sat in living & smoked - damn me! Then we four got nother & went to Riley Springs, roller coasted & shot.

Went with mother & look for rooms for us & stop in to see Mary Haggins & Ben-man - Jack looks better.
Then I went on up to Kate's & later met Ma at the K. W. for luncheon. We walked out to washerwoman's and did some shopping before returning to hotel. I wrote to Gladys, Maria and Hugh.
Went over to Emily Clarks saw her dear baby & then met Tony at the bank & we had a picnic & came here to see my photographs of Japan. Just as she left Miss Lily Small called & I listened & was told for 1 1/2 hours! Then Phil & Gertrude finally arrived!!
They had dinner with us.
We then went up to Kate's where Charlotte was & soon went to the Colonial - rather show. Very entirely different from the H. & A. Club.

walked up the street with Ma when we met Phil & Gertrude in the Ford. So I left Ma & went with them. We got her Schroeder who invited us out to the Country Club to luncheon - very nice. He had to leave early but we hung around, Phil acting crazy - about me. Finally we decided to play golf but after we had lost two balls decided to stop. So we came in town & dropped me at Kate's - they were going on to Bellefonte but at Kate's there was a message from Aunt L. saying no! After much discussion they went to Harrisburg & Kate & I went with them as far as Middletown & returned by train - great ride! That evening I was exhausted, read "Mendels & Images" - Roman until my eyes closed & then tried not to sleep the day, much work.

Wea. WED. MAY 10, 1922 Ther.

Mrs + Pa have gone away - alone in this hotel full of thoughts of Malta - right!
Did a few chores + then went to bank to get pay-came back + wrote to Sarah, Ed + Edie about H. C. S. reunion. Then Jane + I went to V. W. to have lunch. I like Jane. I wandered up to Charlie's talk to her + Dr. Gatter! as used to her tales. Later I went to Katie's to keep her from coming. While she looked after her sick Ma. I got to feeling confidential + told her a great deal more than I should but clearly again, at the library + walked home with her. Mrs. + I dined very late, then I admitted, thinking over the letter wrote to Lucie, Glad + Maud Dean + which girl I'd like to do.

Wea. THUR. MAY 11, 1922 Ther.

After much dilly-dallying Ma + I went out to the Papirus to lunch on delicious asparagus!
Mary was there - she is so material! - no sign of a baby yet! Shey had one of Mary's puppies, a beauty but not so dear as Vic. He had something the matter with his hind legs which was rather pathetic. I sat peacefully most of the time on the porch kind of like a doorman.
All the children began to come in + show me their pets - kittens, piglets, quinta pigs! Jane came just as we left. Just got home when Dick Kendler called up for a "date" so after supper he came, we talked to and then went to the Colosseum
- that place is never good!

Wea. FRI. MAY 12, 1922 Ther.

Spooled around my room taking hairs to dress - what will I do when slunge a Euro band - in to Kate's for a minute before before meeting her for lunch. In the afternoon went back to Kate's & Dick came up to take us and to sit in college to the track meet of all small Eastern colleges - very good. Saw Lou May first but he was taking part so poor Dick had to buy peanuts & candy for me both & we kept him away - I only felt & May & Dick Wagner were there so. After supper they little took me to the 7 + M Green Room club play which was very good - John is great sing up very fast but still young.

Wea. SAT. MAY 13, 1922 Ther. got up early in order to go to market with Kate - as it was she kept me waiting. Market was not so changed. Afterward I showed her my snapshots and then we went up & her house & ate cake! In the afternoon she & I moved out to 7 + M. again to see the track meet with Dick.

Everyone in the "bunch" was there so I did not enjoy it as much as yesterday. There were several good races & some records broken. Dick took us - his horse - to the day meal for soda afterward.
After dinner Lou May came to me & we walked all the way up to Kate's. Only to find she'd got tired of waiting & gone on to Rocky Springs - so we went too.
The awful gang, including

I wish I'd hear from Al - I suppose when I do, I'll be tired with that pawn of the Ma + Mrs. Goringers pattern thing. In the afternoon I came home + looked over some letters + papers, getting them ready to take to their slot in the office.

Then I went out to call on Mrs. Appel + raising neither of them were at home. I met Kate at Emily Linard's - + Frank + Ed + Keefe were there with their "plans" - Ah! it makes me sick. After supper Kate + Doug came

Smith's aesthetic dancing school play - Doug + I went with Mrs. Goringers tickets.
Good seats for a surprising

Wea. TUES. MAY 16, 1922 Ther.

Mom + I went to the office where our things are stored + I put some of my books away. Then went over to Mrs. G. Brown for a visit. She is so nice for me to go to the dentist - I seem to have miserable teeth, but they never hurt. In the afternoon I went up to Kate's + we went over to Charlotte's + suggested a ride in her car! She took it kindly + we went to Mt. Joy for a sundae. After that, after the drive + talked "road mundaedly" + organized the "Fifty Three" to replace the old "Jenny Five". Kate is aoream. on the sex question. After supper Mrs. + Mrs. G. Brown called + after ward I fooled around smoking + writing up this diary - a great relief.

Wea. WED. MAY 17, 1922 Ther.

Horrible rainy day - Aunt May came in and sat with us while we served. Then we went up to the club to have a meal dinner with Dad. Dad + Ma are much upset about finding us an apartment or something. I'm not interested as it's Lancaster but they seem to take it else up + death. Went up to Kate's where, while I waited for her to wash the dishes, I got very "stern" as I saw a + discovered a trick with a knitting needle. Naughty Nora! Kate + I fooled around + called her at 4 o'clock. Poor Dick met us + we went to the cinema. Kate + John called + put me a box of candy! And he came for me to go to Bible class + afterward I went up to Kate's with Dick + we went to play bridge.

Letter from Susan

Wea. THUR. MAY 18, 1922 Ther.

What's the use of getting up? absolutely none! it seemed this morning. I managed to get to the dentist by twelve, however, and have my wedge removed. Then I went with Ma & Pa on a sort of house to house campaign looking for rooms for us. I nearly dropt with fatigue & hunger. Went up to Kate but she was going out, went on to Mother & found her also getting ready to depart. I left to her for a while and then went home. Ma was also going out. I have the bluest of the blues today - really don't care if I live or die. Dick called up but I said I was going out - had intended to but so Ma & Pa were also out. I read "Nightfall" Anthony Trollope

Wea. FRI. MAY 19, 1922 Ther. *

Went with Ma to Mary Samman's - Aunt Mary was there - much good. I strung some coral beads of mine. Then Ma & I went to the V. W. & met Mrs. Gloringer there. I went up to Kate's but saw they the door that they were eating so went in back yard & knitted. Kate however I learned that Dick was coming so I left - damn Dick. I never seem to be wanted any more. Came home to smoke & read until I went out to cemetery with Ma. I wished to meet Mother's grave but was late - went up to her house to see her. I stopped again - went to dinner but came home. And later on, Ma came & Kate & Dick & we had a good game of bridge. I got the curse at last and oh! what cramps!

I came home & was in my new stylish shoes, etc and wait hours for a fifth street car to go out to the Country Club where Mrs. Da + I had dinner with the Brenemans. Joe was very nice - I wish he'd play around with me. Then he + I came in to Kate's party the whole "munch" was there - paired off - but I felt peppy & had really a very good time. Smoked. not to go to far off India for something equally thrilling - deeply involved. In the afternoon I went up to Kate's - she's feeling blue - we went down town for overalls for her & I had lunch - in - school kitchen. We went into locker to see Carl for a few minutes & then met Carl Miller & a friend who treated us to milk shakes.
We strolled home & going back Carl again appeared & took us for a quick ride.
Kate, Marge, the pup, & I planned a gay dinner party for Thurs. after supper ate, for a change, went to the dentist and they to see Harp & the women and Walter up me with us. Then met Ma at Mon. morning us. In the afternoon Charlotte took Kate & me out in her car to have Kate's picture taken, then we rode around a bit before turning left & then May to go out to Long's Park to play tennis - I sat & watched, knitting all red it - there is something about about a red tie.

Kate wrote to Aunt Sydney. Volvie, Addie and Shirley. After supper Kate & I walked out to Long's where we talked to Long, Mrs. Pirney & Miss Becker.
I smoked with them. Met Bill Smitsch who treated us on way home.

Wea. WED. MAY 24, 1922 Ther.

Finished packing - took my

We went to the Y for lunch and then I went up to Charlotte's where I had a few cigarettes before we went over to Kate's. Later Kate & I walked way out to college, we to get an apple, met Dick who walked home with us.
We had supper at the club and I went to Bible class afterward.
Russell was waiting for me when it was interesting. In the afternoon I went up to Annie's again - she was singing, very nice - we talked & read & later went to Kate's. Kate got pleased because I didn't want to go on a party. So I said yes and went home & got ready - soon girl & Paul kindly came for me & we got Dick & went to Dorring town to the tea-room for my good sup-

We came to Kate's where Paul & I had a frightful rough house over a poem of

Wea. FRI. MAY 26, 1922 Ther.

On the way in to Kate's I wrote a very good poem to Karl about last night's performance. Mailed it to him. Kate is alone - she talked & I smoked. Later on, met Russell who took us to the V. W. for lunch - or rather we took him. When he came up to the house and while Kate was out we had a little "receiving party". Then I got to work on some sewing when Lou May & Dick appeared. After Lou & Dick went down town & back, we played bridge, finally Lou & I were beaten. Later I met Ma & Pa at the Club for supper after which Mrs. Frank Kate & I went to a troupe - a beautiful police dog in "Silent Call" it was wonderful. Then we went up to Kate's for more work. ^{Now} ^{the shadows}

Wea. SAT. MAY 27, 1922 Ther.

Rather "stern" night - first of its kind. I wrote to Miss Mac Donald etc and did a few chores before meeting her at the V. W. When I went up to Kate's & was affectionately greeted by her at the door. Talked to Kate a while & then went up to Charlotte's - she had her room in card papers! We wrapped & tied up some photographs for me to send to the lady here. Then we played two-handed bridge until Kate & Dick dropped in to make it four-handed. Finally I won even if they did have card papers. Then I went at a loose end strolled into Kate's & persuaded her to go to the V. W. to supper with me. She talked easily & they came home to sit with me. ^{the shadows} ^{and} ^{the shadows} Rushed to Sunday School & teach some bad little boys again and then went to church. After church I went with Ma & Dad to the Harbours, where Mr. & Mrs. H. & Bob and we three piled into the car and went to Vintage to eat chicken & waffles. Bob was very nice, but like me, obviously in its family circle. Perfect day for driving but we came right home & I went to Kate's where I made fudge until 10 o'clock - Dick was there. Russ and I got some ice cream which we all ate & then they went to singing we went to Mrs. F. Smith's room and needed a bit but talked a lot about the most interesting subject. I learned something especially about Mary's story.

Wea. MON. MAY 29, 1922 Ther.

Was doing a few chores when Kate appeared & gave me go to the dressmaker's with her. In the afternoon right after a hearty meal I went to the dentist to have two teeth filled - I asked him to pull a wisdom tooth - and boy, he did! It did not hurt during the process it was super duper quick! - ye yep! I went up to Adair's and ordered - all had a fair bit - cars - and we were just about asleep when Dick & Kate came! - I talked to Mrs. G. Long for a while until time to meet Ma & Pa at 8:30 to try to eat supper. Then Kate & I went to Emily Givens. Bill Kinger, took us & Karl & Russ for a short ride & brought us back to family where Ag & Pat & Hershey soon appeared - all folks!

I tried to dye some silk and spoiled the darn thing at the last minute. Margie came home to lunch, which later was very good + I ate so much. Later Margie + I went home + I went to Emily's + dyed my silk right. Then walked home with Cheryl + around the reservoir. got supper at the club + I walked home + dressed for a 4th of July dance at the Gris Club. and clearly I got peppy! John came for Ben + the and I enjoyed the dance exceedingly. But I do not rave about you.

Wea. THUR. JUNE 1, 1922 Ther. got up early again to do a lot of things. I have just off about going to Washington. Reached in to the district & bought a suit - a little milder one.

In the afternoon I went with Dad to get my suit case, & then went out to the house to fill it.
It is raining & humid I was supposed to go to a lawn party but, thinking of odd jobs, that's off for I had to wash my hair & a million other things. I actually did every thing. (1)

After supper at the Club with couple including my & 92 year old Dad I went up to Kate's - to see Kate but Dick was there & so I was thrown to the mercy of Big whom I did not want to see - so he got mad because I wouldn't let him put me

Wea. FRI. JUNE 2, 1922 Ther.

Rushed around packing and setting off for Washington. I wrote Ma & Pa waving good-bye.
Had to see Laurence in Dym much in background.
There was a horrible man on the train who got him self excited & when we landed in York followed me through the streets! I finally got rid of him and had lunch at the "Oriental" hotel. Then I took a train - just caught it taking huge suitcase and Dorothy Walker Sarah Peters, & Edith de Bresson met me at Washington in his car. It is wonderful to see them again. Came out to H.L.S. - dear place, a few familiar faces. It is raining so the play is postponed - gladhouse had put me in the house & then went to Class Day

Wea. SAT. JUNE 3, 1922 Ther.

Sarah & I slept together - we moved my bed into her room. I was actually eating breakfast at 8! It is still raining. Eva Robertson Hays arrived & we gave her a luncheon until later when we went to Dottie's apt. where we had lunch at a little house, then a ride & came out here for a walk to take a nap - and I took one, too! Later Aluma Pledger's voice was up. I talked over Passover with her - nice, she met Al. Then we had the school picnic in the house. The five '19ers got up & sang! Peppy picnic. I investigated the grounds which have changed since our day, as has so much. Then we saw the slum play "Nigametha" in the house and very good. Some walkers come & walked by us.

Mrs Van Gundy had 1914 to tea at midnight!!
Wea. SUN. JUNE 4, 1922 Ther.

The alumnae were asked to meet Miss McDonald in the studio - we did & she talked about all the wonders of the school. Then we had a few minutes rest before she sent for just the 1919ers and to us she read the letters - very good - from the rest of our class. In the afternoon there was a religious meeting - just like the religious meetings used to be - then Dottie & Edie took me to see cousin Ruby & Betty Potter - they half-heartedly asked me to visit them. After supper we had some delightful surprise. Sarah & Dottie acted like fools in the back slumma room & had us all stifling laughs. Started to rain again just as we got home!

Wea. MON. JUNE 5, 1922 Ther.

Slept thru breakfast - didn't get up till maid actually started to make my bed. Edie abeth Miller dropped in to tell us of her way to N. Y. + Europe. That makes six of our class who we went to the alumnae meeting - long + boring - I do not take interest in those things. Afterward I went to lunch but the Willard with Ann Pendleton + Arthur Bliss whom I met in Boston. We drove around a bit before coming back here. It is still raining so we had Flag Day in the gym and it was surprisingly nice. Then Dattie, Edie, Sarah + I went into Dattie's where we dressed for the alumnae dinner which was at the Grace Dodge Hotel. Simple. It was very nice - the seniors are very nice girls. Embled on way home! Edie came up to sleep with me.

Wea. TUES. JUNE 6, 1922 Ther.

After tickling Edie all night I felt like sleeping all morning but had to get up for Commencement exercises. It was just as always, and they even had the songs they sang when we were graduated. I tickled Ann during service. Then we had luncheon, packed up + said good-bye. Ann wanted me to visit her for a while but I wasn't sure of her sincerity so I went to Dattie's with Sarah + Edie and passed around with them playing bridge a bit, until time for them to take me to the station. I had an uncomfortable trip - eating in the dining car and was very much amused at the interest the porter + conductors took in my welfare when I thus 'looked so travel-experienced'. Dad met me at the Lancaster. Found letter from Mac but none from Al.

Then we got easily into the old rut. This bought materials for me to make four thin dresses! In the afternoon I went up to Charlotte and found they had a swimming party on Lake & Charles, that is, the joined them & we had the gay old time in the Vidley Springs pool. It was the color of heaven we had ice-cream cones & sundaes. After supper went to Billy's class - good lesson on the "Caves & fishes" and then went up to Betty Harman's.

She is 6 feet tall & a splendid looking girl. Mother was there & we had ice cream

I went up to Kate's but she was in so dead so I walked down with Russell & went to Emily Lindard's. While there I did a sketch of Baby Emily which turned out quite well. Kate & Doc showed up out to buy a present for her, I sent to Julia & Stuart who is marrying Hugh Clark (also name) when we got back Russell was here & we talked & smoked for a while. After supper I went up to Kate's. Dick was there so Russ & I sat in the swing in the like a baby and got me excited with his fingers. And somehow he did not irritate me tonight.

Worked hard on my dress sitting in the living room with the Miss Lattie. In the afternoon went up to Clara Lattie - saw her to Katie for my ego and went back to Lattie, where Tony called up to ask us to go swimming using the "was in curling" so I went. Tony, Jimmy, Tony & myself to go out lake. It was fine, the water like May Island. When we got home we heard the dreadful news that Sally Heller was drowned in the pogonahana this afternoon. It is so awful. He lived just down to Mrs. Lattie so this neighbor hood is very depressing. Only his father is home. They were canoeing in the rapid. Came home after supper & went to Mrs. McD., Betty, Tom & Mary Bad night - at five I heard the most awful shrieks - Mrs. Heller just got home and was crying for her boy. Oh, God I do not understand death for there on earth. I served all morning. Saw June Heller who has come home from college - I wish I had the art of saying what I mean. Had to go to the dentist to get a wedge, but he pulled another tooth! I had that over. After lunch I went to Mrs. Springer's & cleaned it out. Then I stopped up to Katie but she was going out with him so I went home and took a nap and served & prepared. I feel awful - I could eat no supper as had milk shake near here instead. Later had another with Mrs. Lattie, with whom I sat on the porch all evening.

Walked up to Kate's with Karl Miller and Cath met Pe + Ma at the Club for dinner. Russ + Kate + Dick were there too and after ward we went back to Kate's where we met Karl + his car. He took us all up to + to Batesville. Russ behaved queerly, curled in back seat + Kate + me met Fred + Sally with K. Flynt + friend of hers at the Village tea room where we had tea and the boys amused us by throwing spins. It rained + we came home - to Kate's. Russ disappeared + Kate + Karl + I had an argument on life + death etc. !!! He played mandolin got up feeling blue. Tried to put out a dress but had to stop, so later Ma + I went down town + did a little shopping. Mrs. Floyd + I lunch'd with us. As I passed Kate's house she called me in + Russ asked me to go to the Senior Prom tonight a Lou May quit took me on account of Dalby. (They found Dalby's body today.) But I could not go to the dance without Lou. Went on up to Charlie's but talked to her until she + I went out to see some wells. I went over to Kate's - Dick + Russ + Kate + I went back to have Kate curl her hair! My tooth began to ache - I walked + waited + met Ma at the Club for supper - felt terribly depressed. Went to bed at 10 o'clock. Damn my mood.

Wea. TUES. JUNE 13, 1922 Ther.

Got up early to go to Father's funeral. Several shocks as I went out my dog just as coffin came out next door and saw Sam May's expression. I wept at funeral - first time I've been to. Went with Charlotte to mother & Kate & Tony. I do not like the music nor the parents at a funeral. Came home & slept with Ma. In the afternoon I went up to Charlotte & saw George - home from the hospital. He is tremendously improved. He took me for a ride until C. was ready to take me & June Keller for a really long ride. June was very brave. I don't expect she realizes her brother's death? After supper John Allen took me to see "Co. Yankee in King Arthur's Court" - very funny. It is shown 18 to 20 times a day.

Wea. WED. JUNE 14, 1922 Ther.

Slept late with vague dreams - I got the blues. When I went to the dentist & had a most painful session with him - why do teeth ache & decay? When I went up to Kate, but she practically kissed me out so I tried to calm myself before meeting Ma! On the afternoon I went down to Emily's. Lots of callers there as usual, Marie Johnson, Kate & Dick & Tony. I walked all the way home with Tony & had nice chat. After supper at club - Dad just returned from day in Tulsa. I went up to see Mrs. Spitt Johnson alone. So I went with her & the Dr. & Miss Lane is the good to Boston town. Fully enjoyed it.

preparing to go out when May called up saying she was coming to see me contradictory call. In the afternoon I went up to Kate's but she was going swimming with Charlotte - why didn't I asked - got depressed with the old "no home no true friends" - so I went to ending to get cheered up. I had lots of fun helping her take care of the baby. George is so sensitive May dropped in + later when Tony came he treated us all to sodas.

I walked home with my. After supper I went with the family to the neighbors where I played with "Laddie" + smoked + drank home-made wine!! I ate a wild quail I like variety - well. I got it.

Wea. SAT. JUNE 17, 1922 Ther.

Letter from Molly - made me quite homesick for the old days. I slept all morning and George called me up to go to morning, so I had to go away from the V. H. to be here in time. Charley was with him & also a friend of his - Geo Hartley. Howard & my niece. And Tony was there - I seem to be, despite spring jealousy - not that I'm in love with George. We had a good swim - some of the "bunch" were there & tried to drown me. I then swam & George & I "cut up" in the back seat coming home. Went up to Lulu's & danced. Went with Ma & Pa & Miss Lottie to Miss Alice's house to a delicious dinner. I did not talk. Later went to Dr. Appels to see the girls. Miss returned from school & I went to see them. Lots of people there to welcome them.

Wea. SUN. JUNE 18, 1922 Ther.

Got up early to teach Sunday school - the last week & I'm glad for it. Not even to those little boys. After lunch I met Susie & Kate & walked with them until I met Dad who told me I was expected for dinner at Mrs. Daisy Gussler's. Miss Lily Ball was there - another good meal. Then I met Susie & we walked out to Tony's, where I actually enjoyed talking to the "bunch". Then Charley, Joe H., Kate & Dick, George & I went to the Appels for the old Sunday night supper - lots of fun. I read "Brown Jug" for a while and then we all out to the ponds & I was beside George so it was all right. Darn me! I fell over in a drop in 10 minutes. George caught me when I was down, but he is hard to carry.

Lucas preparing to go swimming with George so I went too, & found out afterward that he had called me up. But Lucas sat in front & I sat it with Kate & Dick.
Luc & I didn't go in.
Luc got poison ivy. After we went up to Kate's for gingerale (and Carl Miller dapt in & gave us some more). After supper I went up to Charlotte's to play bridge with her & Joe Hartley & George.
George was very out-rinded & I like him more than ever! Now we all caught! We took Joe to the train & helped to wave a safe farewell!

Went to the dentist and spent a not too terrible hour with him. Then I went up to Kate's to see George was there, reading.
Diet Kate at the V. W. & we had lunch together & then went down to see Lucy & the baby. We laughed & ate candy till we were sick & then left. I going up to Lucy's where I served & dabbed poison until George came to take us out to Brookside for a swim. But most of us just watched. After supper I went up to Lucy's again. Dick & Kate came up to say good-bye.

she walked in with me - we were both in wonderful humor. We met Charlotte and all three bought a book for Kate - it's her twenty first birthday. Then Charlotte & I did some more shopping.
In the afternoon I went up to Charlotte's - we chatted & then went for Kate & took her to Lucy's where we donated the very nice book.
Then I went home to dress for a picnic Reese Davis gave - the old bunch. Lil long took Kate & me in her car - to Grub Lake. But there wasn't a girl, Vera Rogers, K. Flegley, Angele Flegley, Laura West, Dick Wagner, Bill Kinger, Jack Lancell, Art & Herb Weaver, Mary & Jack Jones - man. We ate wonderful food & dressed & sat around fire. During the later I talked to J. Lancell about art & life etc. A good time was had by all.

with that happy-go-lucky family. Then George's sister brought Lucy's back when George called up asking us to go swimming — we couldn't but I went with him to today's springs and we had a splash of a swim, diving for an old belt buckle — it was a perfect day not too hot.
After supper, I walked up then decided to go swimming so we dressed at home & went to 9th Lake George

Kate, Nell, Rachel and I were very hilarious. After supper I went up to Kate's Lucy was there but soon she went home to see Phil Long — then Kate & I talked long & seriously & said more than I should

I went up to Charlotte's after a smoke we went down town & then to Kate's.
Kate was about to go out & made a mean remark about asking Potter - not me, so I left in a fury.
Charlotte caught up to me & we went to Emily's. She was also going out - with her baby so we bridged along. We ended up at Kate's - I made my peace later, dead. I went home alone with Dad - I like to do that. Then I went up to Mary's and told I & Harry & Mary had a long game of bridge. I would come with Mrs Potter.

Finally, dragged myself out of bed and had a little while left to sit before meeting Ma + Mrs. Glominger at the V. - saw Phil Long there. In the afternoon I went shopping with Ma + then up to Supp. She was just going to Katis, so I talked to Ma. Soon I got up and so we went for Ma in tending to play bridge and, Charly + Kats came too! We finally arranged a game and had a pleasant afternoon. After dining at the club I walked up to Charly's stop for second to see William Bertha Patterson + learned that B. Capt. Martin + Jack Russell had gone out for me! They finally returned + we had some good bridge + lots of giggles.

Finished his tie tonight!!

John called up, asking me to play golf - so I did and we had a very nice game. Dave Birney + others were there, but did not bother us. In the afternoon I went to the dentist after lunching at the V.W. with Jo Glominger + Walton. The dentist really killed me so I went to Ma's to recover. She was going out to Marj's so I went along and we took a ride + supper. I stayed at the Appels while they ate - till my supper time - did they like it? I don't know. At the club I saw Herbert Hartman + Phil who said they were going to Ma's. So I went back + prepared her + later they came + we had a very nice game of bridge. But I won - he is a scoundrel.

Kate came to Lucie's & said my debt on "Tilly" by treating her at the P. O.
Then we started out for

So I had to keep going to Susie's. Charlotte was there - we played bridge in spite of my splitting headache. Then we talked about the boys & our chances with them. I went home early to dress to go to June at Country Club with the Westons. I was the only young one & was rather bored except for the food. As soon as I & kept the young people away, all the boys & Bill & Marge & Anne & Park & R. Flynn came & I would have had a miserable time of it. I had not come then - ^{on my way to} home.

Mai & Miss Boby were with us - I had a cigar afterwards. Then Kate & I walked out to the Appels & read & talked until we strolled out to Tony's. Charlotte is living at Susie's now. At Tony's the boys paid more attention to the younger girls, which irritated Charlotte! Herbert & Phil were at Susie's for supper, but as Kate & I were not invited we went on to our house - they promised to come for us after supper, but as they hadn't come by then, I left!! In the afternoon I came back again and Susie, I mean, Lottie and I walked out to see Tony who is in bed. Dave gave us a lift home. Later Kate came and still later Nell took the latter & I, I mean, me, for a ride and I smoked a cigarette for tomorrow! After I dined alone at Club and then I came to the Appels' once more - farewell party. - Betty & Dick were there. Herb, Phil and Joe. We took a ride - I transferring Phil & Susie Joe in Joe's car! Went down town with Ma, met Kate + went to the station to see Charley + they go. lots of people there saying they're going. K + C. gave me bridge cups and cards + a pocket book! Miss Jones supposed to go to the apples to lunch but wasn't sufficiently urged + didn't go + was sorry afterwards. I came home right after lunch, feeling rather hot and slept for two hours. Then I got ready for Reese Davis' picnic. Dick Snyder came too + Anna Watt took us out in his quonset with Mary + Jack Baranman. Bleaker Martin, instead of Dick came home with me. He is sweet, sat beside me all the time. Went arriving first. Hub + Paul + I played "A-B-C." ^{first time}

Wea. SAT. JULY 8, 1922 Ther.

Still no letter from Al! I wrote to Beau, the Reyolds family + Ann Reubelson. Ma + I met Miss Sawyer at the V. M. + she gave us all kinds of Bellefonte news. Then I went up to Mills - it is so funny without the girls. I scolded + dictated a letter to Mary which she wrote. Funny combination - her writing + my thoughts! We also took a little ride + I left to interrupt Kate + Dick to get news of tonight - it is so very indefinite. Went home + dressed + proceeded to wait for hours before Bleaker + George + Kate arrived to take me out to the Country Club to dinner - outcome of June 24 - They were quite a few there, but they left. We danced - especially George + me! But we left too, went to Wesley Springs. But I in back seat! But like George

Wea. SUN. JULY 9, 1922 Ther.

Just tell who went to church with me. We went up to Kate's, where she & Ma sat on my because I had asked Herb & Phil to not take to Nell's to supper tonight - aa, aa! After dinner I went to Nell's - there is a long account in the paper of Jack Mountgomery's marriage to the chorus girl. George came up to Nell's and took us, Hugo & Edwin, too to his house for ice-cream! Then he took self & me for a ride. I like George - he intrigues me! He came to Nell's to supper and so did Phil & Herb - much to Nell's surprise. We played games etc - George left and later Herb took us for a ride - first to Rocky Springs - no cause - then to Water Woods where we watched trains! I like Herb.

Wea. MON. JULY 10, 1922 Ther.

Sewed at home all morning. After lunch at the V. I read Mary's Chicago Wife until late enough to go on up to Kate's - she was in a hell of a humor, still mad from yesterday morning. I never heard of anything more foolish. I went down to Emily's & sewed & chatted with her. Called up dear Beaker breakfasting flat for tomorrow night. Kate came down to Emily's & tried to log on everything. Later I went to the Writing House ass. where Nell is working and talked to her long & earnestly until time to go & blow us to a surdage. After supper I went back to Nell's & finished Mary's pillow - I had told I forgot to say I got a lovely long letter from today - up in the clouds since! Also from Fred & Stebb.

Wea. TUES. JULY 11, 1922 Ther.

Got up early - half past eight; that is what was early when Mrs. came to take me to Glen Hall in Wernersville. In the car were Kitty Hartman & her friend Anne Shepherd and Phil Long. We played to B.C. etc and had a jolly ride. Mother, Mrs. Hartman, Mrs. Appel, Mary & Lyle Lore & Nell Appel, Dot Stauffer & Lois Bick with, were also on the party. We walked up to the tower before lunch and afterwards played bridge & watched the boys & girls Anne play tennis. Hub & I also saw a little pool. When we went on to Black Horse where we had a delicious supper & afterwards played games on the "village green". Stayed in the way home. Stopped in at Appels for chocolate!!

Wea. WED. JULY 12, 1922 Ther.

Cut out and baked a dress for Ma. Then dressed to go with Nell out to the Country Club to a luncheon which Mrs. Brenneman gave for Kitty Hartman & her friend. There were about a dozen "youngsters" there, but I sat beside Mrs. B. and enjoyed it thoroughly except for the terrific heat. For a favor I got one of the little iron elephants, used to paint last fall. We played bridge, Nell, Anne Shepherd & Chickie Sprucker & I. An awful thunder storm came up - blew the chairs off the porch - we had already vacated them! I layed at, Nell's & dinner. First Mrs. B. is also coming. Hub & I will come (invited) to play bridge but Martha Keller also came, & played "7 1/2" until she finally left.

Wea. THUR. JULY 13, 1922 Ther.

Worked on Ma's dress all morning in the terrific heat until I didn't know whether I was running a sewing machine or an aeroplane. After lunch I went down to Emily's - still feeling woozy - and I showed you see, I have no will power. Later, after I had helped Emily with her dishes Kate came in to make a dress. She has apparently gotten over all the little mix-up - thanks goodness! I went to sleep most of the time. Later Nell came to see the baby & took us all for a ride. Went home, ate, no supper, & slept until time for Bleeker, Kate & my Rhoads to come to play bridge. I got beaten. Was party nice? I felt beam.

Wea. FRI. JULY 14, 1922 Ther.

Called up Kitty Hartman asking her to borrow but she invited me to dine instead! Did a little shopping with you. After lunch I went to the visiting nurse office to see Nell. Everyone is so peppy about going to see George & in so soon - I finally got cold of some the chatter & so was very cuttingly justic about that trip that I caught it. Then I started in to telephone & kept it up steadily - Herb, Bleeker, Kate. Finally I went up to Kate's & we planned & bought the food. Rufus came to take me to his house to eat & afterwards took me & Kitty & you & well out to Phil's & back then left us. So Lucinda Appel & Bobby Appel took us to Colonial - good show - trained birds - me out in box! Fun!

Wea. SAT. JULY 15, 1922 Ther.

Met Isaac with Kate & Blecker at the Appels & we started off to Reading. Cold morning, fast drive. B. is sweet.

Met George - Isaac left and Bubbe & Phil & I all drove up. So George left the way to Bryn's house, his cottage along the river. We had an awful fight, which we girls fought and then finally I had an awful gangaboose over a picture he wouldn't let me see. I hit him. Then we canceled and Blecker had to rescue me - I couldn't turn around. After that we swam - or rather, Bl., George & I tried to swim each other
- the rest watched. Picked up a + bumped heavily home. Bl. & George at with me + family at Club. Went up to Kate's, collected her & girls & Bubbe + went to Rocky Hill night, lots of fun, then I am

In retiring I took calmed!

Wea. SUN. JULY 16, 1922 Ther.

I did not want to go to church but I went - well went with me. We walked up to Kate's before I had to meet Ma at the V. for a poor kind of Sunday dinner. Then I stayed there & read "Jazz Baby" until time to go up to the Appels.
George was there and soon Blecker came in.
I felt rotten - head throbbing terribly, George rough housed a bit - he is so aggressive today. We went up to his house for ice cream which wasn't there! So we fooled around and I tried to sleep! Kate & I were there to entertain George took me to Stevens House to dine with Uncle Fred + family. Bill & Blecker came for me, back to Appels.
George left. Bubbe took me & Kate & Dick, Phil took us to we went to water woods. I slept!

* Wea. MON. JULY 17, 1922 Ther.

Agh - such - today! I must have dengue fever again - the medicine doesn't seem to have helped much. Mr. Grimes, Mary's father & uncle had kept it as we with him. I slept most of the time. And brought some bread & soup cans from the V. W. for my lunch. In the afternoon I tried to read North & Askin's Julia but my head still throbs so I wrote to Edie, Mrs. Kupper and a long long one to Charlotte, telling her every thing we're all doing & what's happening! I'll be so glad to get it! After supper (which Naomi brought up to me) Nell & Kate came to see me. Nell discovered an old book of love letters to show us - & they were from J. P. & Bessie! Later I took oil with gin. 10 1/2

Wea. TUES. JULY 18, 1922 Ther.

Feeling so much better this morning it is surprising! Slept until about eleven and then dressed for picnic with Harman. Bobby slept for me at the V. W. after my lunch. Anne Shepherd, Nell & Eleanor drew mine in the back seat of our car. All the Appels had their cars. Phil was driving. We went to Hershey - quite a rainy storm on the way. But it cleared and they were swimming in the pool. Nell & Phil didn't go in, but took me around to the Esplanades. With us wasn't there but we saw Mrs. We went to Camsport - lovely drive, over which we played animal cribbage - and there had a Crociross supper. I sat beside Bobby again - always Bobby and like him. It rained terribly on way home. I am just a tiny bit tired.

Wea. WED. JULY 19, 1922 Ther.

Still have my little old headache in spite of the oil. Poked while dressing and Kate appeared & stayed for a few minutes. Then I wrote in this & wrote to Aunt A. After lunch at the P. Ma and I did a little shopping and I got in a frightful humor. I went down to Emily's & mother - helped her with the dishes & I got ready to go out and then I did an errand for Papa & I left for Nell at the hairdresser and we went to her house where Kate joined us - we served & got into bad humors again. It is the weather. Judy, the dog, followed me home. After supper I went to the Appels again - Theodore took us for a little ride & then we played bridge with Mrs. Appel.

Wea. THUR. JULY 20, 1922 Ther.

Cleaned out my closets, etc. and pressed some clothes also washed a dress until I had no fingers left. In the afternoon Ma had Aunt Ellie & Bertha Patterson to the club to luncheon so it was rather late before I got up to Nell's. There I type wrote a letter to A. - it was quite a job but I'm afraid not very entertaining - the letter. Ma, the process was great. Later George Appel called Nell saying his job closed up. I did not eat any supper as I got interested in making over some pearl earrings. Then I went to Nell where there was a bridge party of Betty Hartman & Anne & another guest, Helen Corlett and Kate later. Martha Keller. George was there and later Herb & Phil came in for the foot. bag race party - I didn't win a prize! Really

Wea. FRI. JULY 21, 1922 Ther.

Ready at nine, to go with Bubbe to Gettysburg. As usual, I was in front with him. I was all dressed up in my new dookin skirt & English tie. Kitty & her two friends and Kelly & Phil John Hartman & Mrs. & Mrs.
Hartman formed the party. We went all the way to Battleground with a guide and then had a delicious meal at a Mrs.
Becker's. Then we went on to Chambersburg - a beautiful drive, good road & wonderful weather.
At Chambersburg we turned back to Harrisburg where we played bridge at the Penn Harris until supper time. Then home - I had the last lap in Mrs. Hartman's car & I'm afraid wasn't very entertaining as I'm a bit tired - everything, I also danced when we stopped.

Al's birth day.

Wea. SAT. JULY 22, 1922 Ther.

Slept late, washed my hair, and dressed slowly.
Went shopping with Ma. In the afternoon I went up to Nell's - great entertainment there - sawing a dead rat! George had gone to scout out but I was not sorry - I was beginning to find faults in him. Nell & I talked for a while and then jorled up to Katie's - they are a lot of nice new policemen on the corners. At Katie's I read "Life" etc. It is too late to go to talk.
When Nell brought me home I had a time deciding whether to go in to supper or not - finally decided not. I'm minded tonight. But spruced up sufficiently to sit on porch with this lotus & write to Olivia, Blanco, Miss Baldwin & Mrs. Stewart.

Wea. SUN. JULY 23, 1922 Ther.

Slept late again - everyone at church when I got up so alone I had to struggle thru a terrible feeling of nausea. Finally was dressed & sat in wash room to read Henry Haul and "Cardinal's snuff box"

In the afternoon I went up to Wells - we talked for a while, then slept which really made us realize that we must do something or else disintegrate! so we took a ride in the pond.
Later Kate came up & Bubly & Phil & Dick & we had a very nice supper. I really was teasing her with some "dirt" and Kate got mad for some reason & "had to go home" so we four sat on porch & talked & Bubly had his head on my lap and was really very nice. Oh, how

Wea. MON. JULY 24, 1922 Ther.

Still have that sickish feeling when I got up - and it is too silly to go to the doctor's.
I took my sewing and went over to Litter's Brinton Weaver's house and had my feet with Mr. Penn's brother drop in, too. On the way to the V. W. Herb & Phil passed & asked me to go swimming. So they came back for me afterward - we were going to take Ruth Edders' shade, but she couldn't go, so we took Bill & Kate. First however, we went up to Herb's empty house.
He dressed at Phil's house, swam at Grub Lake & came back & Phil - they asked us to stay to supper & we did! and helped wash dishes & had lots of fun. Then the Bubbers took Phil & me up to their house where we dined & fooled around with Willy & her friends. Home via Wells

Wea. TUES. JULY 25, 1922 Ther.

The weather has changed. I cut out a dress for myself and did some pressing. After lunch I went up to Nell's - after a while we got Theodore & Fing to play bridge with us. Then Nell brought me home to dress for the of Paces Davis' picnic. Herb & Paul came for me - we rode around & ate hot dogs until it was time to get the Segley girls - but they wouldn't come. So we had a nice jolly ride out to Famb's Lake by our own car. There was a very good crowd there but we stuck together. Delecker was there & lots of former work boys. Bobby was lying on my side most of the time, holding my hand. We were all well - minded - had our "shovels" - well, not.

Wea. WED. JULY 26, 1922 Ther.

sewed - indeed I'm beginning to tire of dressmaking. After lunch I went up to Nell's - but she wasn't there - Mrs. Appel told me to make my self at home - so I started to read "Caravans of the Night" Harry Hervey. I just fell asleep. Soon Kate came & we went down town. Came back - still no Nell so we played bridge with Theodore & Fing. On our way home we met Dabby who picked us up. He & Kate came for me after supper & we went out & got Dabby & Tail & went up to Nell's - played bridge until we got silly then we organized the "Shovel Inn", which is the Appel's house - a meeting place for one of the local friends. We took Tail home & brought Harry Ellen back & I was sitting back of my own chair.

Wea. THUR. JULY 27, 1922 Ther.

Walked in to meet Nell + went with her to buy some picnic things for the "Picnic Day" we heard they until they all sounded like. Then went up to the Brennans with her for chicken-corn soup.
It was delicious. Then I got Kate + me went to Nell's - played the words + I being on the crest of the wave, danced until we were crazy! Nell's heart-man dropped in. Kate + I went out to my house. Nell + I called up - separately. And Phil came out + we had a game of bridge. After supper I went up to Nell's - Nell was there - but no one else came. Nell + I gave him some red garters! The only excitement of the evening for we were peepers + didn't know what to do - damn!

Wea. FRI. JULY 28, 1922 Ther.

Bummed around the house - got letter with checks from Aunt Louise! Then went down town alone + shop + eat. After lunch I went up to Nell's and found Kate there - both peppy but I wasn't - so they got ready to go swimming + I didn't - just then Nell came in to go swimming
- so I did! That is, I took my suit and we all went out to Barbey Lou's.
He + Nell + I dressed there + went over - so the others were in a hurry. We three had lots of fun - a storm came up while in water. Nell + I came home in street car - I, talkatively silly, after dinner I went up to Nell's + the Barbies arrived and we had a wonderful evening of bridge - Phil + I beat. We played till 11:30 - they seemed late to leave - I slept with Nell.

Wea. SAT. JULY 29, 1922 Ther.

Well didn't wake me up till late - naughty girl! Then she brought me home & I finished a dress & went to school. After lunch, I went every where with her to buy me a hat, finally succeeded. Went up to Hill's where we played bridge as the Barbies were there waiting for me. Then we got Kate & all went out to Phil's to drive for a swim. It was great, but on the way home something broke & we hustled around in our bath suits trying to fix it. Finally Hill & Kate & I got home - it was the Lord - very late. So I did not go down to supper but ate pretzels. I read my dress & read magazines & wondered why the Barbies did not come for me to play with them. Later - they were looking for me.

Wea. SUN. JULY 30, 1922 Ther.

Wrote to Aunt Louise and went to church, & wondered why our Lord did miracles - he was not yet the son of God - just of man. Walked up to Hill's & we walked to Kate's. Then I met the family for dinner after which Barbie came to take me to Mt. Greta with John & Fritz Hartman. It was a lovely day to drive. We saw a friend of John's at the camp but Fred Reynolds was away on strike duty. Very hot & dusty there. Home then came & tithing. Barbie was in his bad mood - silent. We went to John's & John to supper - very nice. I helped her put little John & Jackie to bed - darlings. We stayed long & talked - very nice. Then we went to Apple & got Nell & Kate & Dick to ride against our will - to Mt. Joy for seed. Got back going - but coming home B. let me drive!! & sat close to me.

Wea. MON. JULY 31, 1922 Ther.

Dread of Bobby again - I'm afraid my heart is affected a wee bit!
Cut out another dress & sewed it up. After lunch I went up to the Appels - arrived just as Bobby came! Miss is has come back from school & is sick as usual! We played bridge for a while and then got Phil did some work & went out to Grand Lake. All were very quiet - we stayed in the car and Kate couldn't go in. It was great. B. & I roughed out - also Phil & I what is the matter with me? After dinner I went up to the Appels - alias Shopel from The Bubbies were there & Kate & Dick. We played bridge & I won a prize, because Lucy couldn't take it. We had food & lots of fun. B. & I sat on porch & talked. Told around "coming" Phil & then B.

Wea. TUES. AUG. 1, 1922 Ther.

Served but didn't accomplish much - it's the day I suppose. After lunch
I went up to the Appels to one about or I got down & read & soon Bubbie blew smoke in the window at me. Then we played bridge and teased poor old Lucy about being "unsworn". After supper we congregated again and went to sitting for some portraits - Lucy was very foolish about going - extra girl etc, but we made her go and then for the first time B. & I paired off, absolutely by & we had a beautiful time kissing my shoulder.
First I sat in front with Phil to tease everyone, but then got in back with "all & my Bobby dear". We got to telling dirty jokes - a good set one - I'm afraid now the end will be near for me.

Wea. WED. AUG. 2, 1922 Ther.

Was sewing industriously when they came out & we sat long & discussed the weather. In the afternoon, went down to Emily's and tried to draw a picture of the baby, but Anne Gowers with her baby - ugly - & Susan Hager came in & by the time they left my mood was gone. Soon however, the Barbours & the Hull & Jim came to take me swimming. We had a great old time, Robbie & I diving underwater & when Hull came under - we would kiss each other! As my family were going over to the Stevens house with the Barbours - Herbert got started on his summer in Paris & kept us well entertained. When we went up to the uppers & Susan played bridge with us. ^{me down.}

Wea. THUR. AUG. 3, 1922 Ther.

Slewed all morning, even during a terrific thunder storm - and a tree was struck just across the street. Mrs. Alice Levin invited me & me. I came by there, with Mrs. Pugh, Luby & a very good lunch. Then Susie called up saying Robbie wanted "his Mora" so I went & he met me in the car. We played bridge for a while then Kate came & we went to Grand Lake to swim. Susie & Bobby & Susan across. After supper I went up then but I was feeling "tummy" so Pat & I says - anyway, Monday & just sat. Bobby was the same way - went out on porch several times but I did not follow - why not? I could have gotten what I wanted and would not have had to fight any old habit etc. etc. - but I won!

Wea. FRI. AUG. 4, 1922 Ther.

Washed my hair and dried it in the dear old newly worn sun. Lucy dropped in on an errand. Then Beat with Miss Lottie and sewed. After lunch I went to look for shoes with Ma + the youngies. Then I went up to the Appels, hoping the Rybickis would be up there - but he was at last carried out his threat of dropping us. So Susie came with me with me + thought me how to play Russian Banker. Another thunder storm - damn! after supper which Dad had already ordered + surprised us, I went up to Greg's - we were "radioing" when Bubby appeared. I got nervous! He got B. Long + me four went for a long drive in the moonlight - I drove + he nudged me, then we parked under the big bridge + in spite of S. + Phil, he forced me to - Bubby dear!

Wea. SAT. AUG. 5, 1922 Ther.

Mrs. Hartman caused me many giggles under my bed clothes by inviting me + me to have lunch on "them today" - I used some dresses before going. Bubby was there of course, and he + Kitty and I discussed our elders. I like Kitty - I wish I were not too old to be an intimate friend of hers. At luncheon, as usual, with the present I could not open my mouth. Later I went to the Appels and he took me down town to buy a pair of shoes. Later I got dressed in my "naked or gaudy" to go to the Casino Club with Bubby + B. Long. The latter were a scream, so usual - not even more so. But Bubby - well he petted me till I almost got tired of him - there is something lacking. Dinner was nice + the dance would have been good except for music. ^{good music} there.

Wea. SUN. AUG. 6, 1922 Ther.

Had to go to church - took Tull with me, except for the Communion service it seemed sacrilege - no choir, bad coughing and wooden Mr. Rathbun. Then I went up home with Nell & proceeded to stay to dinner. We hummed around talking & buying cigarettes. Finally Kate came and then Bubbie.
At last we decided to go to Kate's and play bridge. R. & I got beaten.
B. brought me home to dress & came for me to go back to the Appels. B.
Long was there & we ate supper & then Joe Brown man appeared and we had to watch him eat. We were rather dirty-minded & didn't know what to do. Later Bubbie took me & I took Tull along to the water works. They talked & I didn't like my head on it's own.

Wea. MON. AUG. 7, 1922 Ther.

The necklace of red pearls which Cousin Alice Potter left me when she died in Switz. land about five years ago have at last arrived. I love them. I sewed. Took Susie to church with me at the V.M.
Bubbie picked us up on the way home and after we had picked up the Dew Girls, Kitty H. & Kate & Dick & Susan, Phil & Nell we all went to the Circus. I had not been to one for years, and enjoyed it altho it was not at all spectacular. The animals were lovely. We went into a side show afterward - Bubbie & I being much interested in the "nether" - a fake I think.
After supper I went up to the Appels & the Bubbies arrived for a good game of bridge.
Bubbie got restless & we sat on the porch. Phil & I were very sleepy. When I arose the Pardner & Long's Parker with Bubbie playing.

Wea. TUES. AUG. 8, 1922 Ther.

When I was finally dressed I took my sewing + joined Ma on Miss Alice's porch. I wish I could be as clever when I am eighty-four. I wrote to Phil + Cyrus. On the way to the H. we met Kate who joined us at luncheon. She started down town with me but we met Bubbie + Kitty + they took us. Then we dropped Kitty + got Phil + had some bridge - only I just watched + eye + eye. Bubbie + I had a little rough housing. Then we all went to Grubb Lake and nearly froze. I sneaked in the barn + looked at the dirty picture Bubbie never would let me see! Felt like a skunk, too. After supper we all went up to the Bubbie's to where Mrs. Appel but she was there, too. We bridged, we ate + then we played hide + seek in the lovely garden.

Wea. WED. AUG. 9, 1922 Ther.

Letter from Hugh but it didn't thrill me. Slewed odds + ends all morning. After lunch I went up to the Appels + talked to Nell + Mrs. A. for a while. Then Nell + I started to play Russian Bank and of course were interrupted by Bubbie so we played bridge until Bubbie got his car and took us swimming at Grubb Lake. On the way B. + I had a fearful rough + rough ride a pig and then he got moody and didn't say much. Therefore I was undecided about going to school soon after supper but I did + they were waiting for me to go to Epworth to dance. Kitty had Dick + his friend Buck + we all went. I drove the car + Bubbie petted me! 'My will power!' coming home Phil drove and then!

Wea. THUR. AUG. 10, 1922 Ther.

Ma left me alone to cut out a bathing suit - green gingham again. Miss Kattie helped me & we had a beautiful time. Tell went to the R. W. with me to lunch. Saw Phil there. Soon after we got back & the Appels, Bubbie & Phil arrived. We played bridge all day. I was trying to draw until Kate & Dick & his friend arrived. The Bubbies left. Tell & me had to make a ride with Kate & my dogs, but I stayed with hers. Appel was helped me to finish my suit.
When Tell came back I had a shredded wheat & then I went home to dress. I go with Bubbie to Miss Fanny Culder's supper for an nice Lucy McConomy. When we all went to Ralston Spring.
But it was a queerly mixed party & B. & I were tired & perplexed.

Wea. FRI. AUG. 11, 1922 Ther.

Dad left for Atlantic City, Ma went down town and I sat at home & sewed & wondered why. After lunch, at which we met Mrs. Mingley and Mary Horn Adams, I went down to Emily's to paint the baby's picture.
Helen & Red were there but I managed to work & then I called up the Appels & relieved their suspense about my whereabouts & they - Bubbie saw, Tell & Jim came for me to go swim. I wore my new suit which is a first class in the make. I wonder if any other girls make Jim's?
Ma & I stayed alone at the club & then I went up to the Appels - Bubbie, Catharine Phil & wouldn't. Kate & her boys dressed in for a minute. Finally Bubbie, Tell & I decided to take a ride. Had the giggle but they were solemn. Tell in back, Bubbie kissed me but I had to giggle.

Wea. SAT. AUG. 12, 1922 Ther.

Pressed a few dresses and did some dyes about my room. After lunch I went up to the Appels intending to paint a portrait of Kitty's mother, but Bubbie appeared instead and then I couldn't work.

So he & I sat in the same chair while I played Russian Bank with him. Later Lucy & I went down town to buy some candy & then we played bridge. Kate & her boys appeared - she was full of gossip about me. What she should have been looking when no one else was! After dinner I met Bubbie at the Appels and we, alone, went out to the club - some music so we left and I drove the car. Bye & bye we parked and sat in the back seat - "cousins" says she but it's what makes the world go.

Went to church with Lucy & all the Appels. Then I went up to the Brennans for dinner with the family - I was nervous at first on account of Joe & last night, but found he was worrying just as much about my knowledge of him! Had a cigar there. Went up to Appels rode around with them until Bubbie, Kitty H. & Lucy & Nell came. Then I tried to do Kitty H.'s picture - no luck. Kate, Lucy & her boys arrived. I had an awful rough-house with them trying & succeeding in hitting him, because of a dirty remark he said to me - about me. After supper on porch alone with Bubbie I pretended to have a nervous "spell" until I didn't know whether it was fake or real!! Bubbie was dead but we had a nice little time between street cars that passed! "was really right?"

Met Andrew Glominger's wife at lunch

Wea. MON. AUG. 14, 1922 Ther.

Washed two little girls' dresses among other good deeds this morning. In the afternoon I went up to the Appels and soon Bob took up place & demanded bridge. He & I played together & as usual were beaten - the lady in love. Took a hot & long going out in the Ford with call for some pretzels - & was almost killed at least three times. No mention of tonight, so I went up to Appels - was surprised to find a large gang there - Bob H. who insisted on seeing a parcel of Betty. They went to movies but B. stayed with me & Phil came & we three & Lucy played bridge and discussed Kate's attitude toward us - "we are rotten to the core".

Wea. TUES. AUG. 15, 1922 Ther.

Washed - I mean pressed the two dresses and did a few other chores - hot day. After lunch I went up to the Appels & found B. there. He insisted on playing so many can fields before he would take me to buy 47 was two of cigars to send to Phil Reynolds! I got a nice letter from Al to make me feel better about the cigars. Then we went to Sandyville for Phil and then on to Gumbo Lake. We were the only ones there and it was hot & just awful. We came back to the Appels house to supper - which was delicious. Mrs. A. told me to smoke at the table! Betty H. there too - I do like her. Younger ones went to movies - we four didn't know what to do. ^{Phil's maid, old Katie died.}

Wea. WED. AUG. 16, 1922 Ther.

When I saw the lovely hot sun I had an idea - Mary came to see me and agreed with the idea. We walked in together + I went up to Babbie's to lunch + he liked the idea - so I made arrangements for a picnic after lunch. Babbie drove me + Litty + a good, enjoying food and getting most of it from Babbie at the club. Then we got all the apples + this food + Phil Borg and went to go to Lake for a picnic + a swim. We had our troubles when people arrived as we were dressing! I took some snapshots. At our supper place where Dave Davis has his picnic - only this was much nicer. It really was a success. I rode home by longest road + then S. + P. + B. + I played bridge for a while at Harman's + Litty interviewed us!

Wea. THUR. AUG. 17, 1922 Ther. *

Got up with a sudden inspiration to wash my hair. I was well I did.
Mary + I went down early before shops closed and went up to see the two Mrs. G. Dingles. Nice.
After lunch I went up to the Apples - persimmons, only to be greeted by a fire in the grate! (accident?) Well, in my condition, and I sat on porch - I slept. Bye + bye Babbie came and took them all swimming. Well - I played Russian Banter + ate + drank + thoroughly enjoyed ourselves. I stayed to dinner + B. invited him self! After ward, I rested + Mary + Litty + I his enjoyed every one. Then B. took all + me up to Joe Courneaux's to play bridge. + I was beaten. I'm dead tired + I rather hate B.
- because he hasn't loved me today!

Wea. FRI. AUG. 18, 1922 Ther.

Slept long & beautifully - do to my dose of gin last night, I suppose. I tried to write in you, dear diary, and had to call up Lucy for aid - I'm sorry. After lunch at K. W. with the Mrs.
Flouringers - I do like May & D.
I went up to the apples and left to Lucy until Bobby arrived. Finally after much discussion Phil came & decided us about going to Gumb Lake.
I went along & watched & Bobby realized I have the curse & said so. After dinner I went up to the apples & found the Fairbanks & Lucy & all playing bridge. The apomer ang has returned! Well, when I got into society¹ was taken my place! They finally stopped but they then was nothing to do but sit on porch & discuss marriage.²

Wea. SAT. AUG. 19, 1922 Ther.

I went to the Hartman's - stopping on the way to wish well a happy birth day - to paint Betty's picture - but she wasn't there and so I started one of Bubbie - up in the billiard room. Betty came & watched. I had lunch on then altho I don't like to go so often.
Then I did one of Betty - while Bubbie practiced a round in his pyjamas! Later he & I went to the apples and presented well with some presents, then took me home to dress to go to the Country Club with Bubbie, Phil & Lucy.
B. was perfectly darling - we made a bet about "what are you thinking about" - I won.
I danced a bit with Bubbie & Karl & Joe but they were drinking, and any way I would rather be with B. - I am not the usual crazy about him, but today I think I almost love him.

Wea. SUN. AUG. 20, 1922 Ther.

After much will power but heavy qualms I succeeded in getting Mattie & me into St. Johns Church and of course, there was Bubbie.
Afterward we drove in with them to wait at their house till our dinner time - we were invited to stay there. I took care of Gitty & Mrs. H. & B. In the afternoon went up to the Appels and got her to take a nice long walk with me. She was in a bad humor but I talked her out of it. It is a glorious & very windy day. Then we came home to throw ourselves on the couch till B. came. After supper Mrs. C. saw B. nuzzling me! P. & I took her & Betty for a nice long ride & enjoyed ourselves quite & only we dropped them & parked near Waterworks and - oh, Bubbie says she very, very dear. Of course we forgot time - well say we are not killing it!! - & Ma was very mad.

Wea. MON. AUG. 21, 1922 Ther.

Awoke early & thought about Bubbie and then began to sing sang all morning as I mended a dress. The two Mrs. G. Loring came to see us & took us in the Ford to the V. W. after lunch. I went up to the Appels - still singing. Talked till Phil came - we played bridge till Bubbie came - he looked & was just darling. He took us down town to buy some candy & then posed for lots of pictures. Then we sat in the Appels house & talked & sang & then B. kissed me. Went up to his house to get something of mine and then Susie & I came home - left him standing there. Oh, Bubbie dear - good bye! After supper Susie & I walked out to Tony's & they made us feel very queer so that we nearly kissed Phil when we saw him at the Appels.
Bet & I - Mrs. Appel & I played bridge until 11:15 - home at 12:15 -

Wea. TUES. AUG. 22, 1922 Ther.

A funny postcard from Bubbie. — Well, I give him one week to forget. Was going to play golf with Elsie but we left our prep. she came out here in the pond & I went in with her. We supposed to make calls but I felt so dead. In the afternoon full & I were walking past fire house in time to see engines wash out. At her house we found Libby Kong & Dot Weaver waiting to take Nell & Elsie & me out to yard take to arriving. Oh, Bubbie! Nell & I felt very foolish she pretended she was B. & we imitated him etc. After supper I was still silly, but suddenly — as usual — I dropped and again had that awful dead feeling. Nell & I talk about him in the pond. Hope this part proves good.

Wea. WED. AUG. 23, 1922 Ther.

Rather unsettled feeling until I suddenly decided to go calling and night with Miss Fanny Caldwell to see her & her niece, Nancy McConomy. I could smell their dinner cooking & they talked about Bubbie. I left my card at Louise Steinman's — too bad for I did want to see her. After lunch I went down to Emily's. She was in a good mood, too good for me. I helped her wash her dishes & take her bath & then "Nellie" came in a good to take me on errands. I stayed up at the hospital until my supper time and afterwards went out to the house to write letters long over due. Wrote to Abby & Al refusing invitations, & to Phil, Fred, Helen & Lottie.

Wea. THUR. AUG. 24, 1922 Ther.

Got card from Bubbie - well got one, too. I met Susie and we went down town to get the pictures we took of the boys - quite good.
Then I went up there & stayed to lunch. Helped wash dishes, etc. Later Phil appeared and her twin & Jim & Mary Walker who is visiting them, and I got into the yard & started for gump cake. Went to looked like rain & was windy so we turned around & came back to have tea & toast & a cup of bridge. After supper I went back to the apples - and made them play bridge - got beaten but I was in the mood for it - Susie & Phil provoke me with this sort of rough housing.
I suppose it is because I have no one to do it with.

~~sent wedding present to Edie.~~ Wea. FRI. AUG. 25, 1922 Ther.

Letter from Phil - no cigars! So when I met Susie down town we went to the cigar store to see about them.
Bubbie long has gone and Susie is awful - she and her with me at the Y.
Then we went down town with Ma, until we were dead. Went up to her house but I freshened up with a sudden idea - I and spent the whole afternoon typewriting a letter to Bubbie.
Patty & Nell & Mollie wrote, too, and read most of mine but I was alone for a long time, writing & smoking & happy!
Went home in a hurry to dress to go to Louise & Hale Steinman's to dinner.
Rpd Esleman was also there and was quite nice.
We played bridge - lots of fun. Louise is lovely to look at but she has an annoying habit of staring at me.

Wea. SAT. AUG. 26, 1922 Ther.

Letter from Phil - cigars at last.
Prescribed several diseases - including the "last ones" with Bobbie. Had the 9 o'clock at lunch - they invited me to dine at club tonight but I can't go out there without a lay after the way I have behaved there! Went down + bought material for a cape, then went up to the Appels and sat there all day myself, reading and smoking. They finally woke up and I went with them to the Country Club to see Bill + Kate play in tennis tournament. Marie + I brought Kate home + we two sat & talked. Then Bill + I started to V. W. to eat but turned + went to Stevens House instead! I felt somewhat of B. went to Colonial Restaurant for cake!! Then, after over, we went to Appels + played Russian French by ourselves till we almost slept.

Wea. SUN. AUG. 27, 1922 Ther.

Went to Reformed Church with Marie. She is in a very bad humor. We walked up to see Kate + Helen Forsman, whom I do not admire any more than years ago. In the afternoon, I went up to the Appels and read, sitting with my. Many women read my palm - "I could be literary if I wanted to" - oh, Bobbie! We went for a little ride with Hugh + Theodore.
It is a horrible raw damp day and every one is peeples.
I stayed to supper - so different from the usual Friday night suppers. We enjoyed a great deal, tho, on Theodore's comments on his future wife. Then as every one just sort of sat I decided the best place for me is home.
At home, I read "Caravans by night" by Harry Hervey until all was quiet + lonely.

Wea. MON. AUG. 28, 1922 Ther.

Slept late as usual, but accomplished much clearing things out. After lunch I went up to office attache and deposited some of my trash & found Jan called for my keys. Then I went down to Emily's. I have resolved not to go near the apples today - Ma says I go to much, then why was she worried when I didn't go??? And Nell called me up & find out why! But I enjoyed Emily - we trimmed hats and then went shopping and among other things, bought material to make Emily some clothing. By some time I stayed at. I like him since his married. I was surprised by a call from Frank Bateman (Feb. 24) who is in town on business with his brother Ted and a Jack Alaley (?) (croix de queue). They came out & we played bridge till 11:45. Very nice - wish I'd been in own home.

Wea. TUES. AUG. 29, 1922 Ther.

Packed up & was ready when Nell came for me to go with the apples to the Buchanan club. Nell, Mary Phil & I went in Phil's car, Tim, Mr. Walker, Jim & Theodore in one Ford & Dr. & Mrs. A. in another. We had to push the latter up a hill once! Left the cars & crossed the Buchanan - excellent dinner waiting for us and after some bridge we went in swimming. Jack Evans, grown up to be very attractive, came down later. After good supper we played bridge and sat on the porch playing alphabet. Forgot to mention a radio, also a lovely canoe trip which Tim & I had just at twilight, for Hugh Lewis carried our furniture from Hattwood to see us. We went to bed early in the big brass bed-like room. Nell & I snuggled our heads to porch amid great giggling to join Mrs. A. - were excluded. Nell is a darling, we went to sleep holding hands, blessed.

Wea. WED. AUG. 30, 1922 Ther.

Tull + I woke at 7:30 to hear the boys in swimming so we jumped into our suits + went in for a cool dip by ourselves. A U. S. Army dirigible (D-3) flew up the river while we were in + later came back. Ate breakfast. Then Jack + Mary W. + Tull + I went for a row with our car. Phil rode other - after my earlier argument about unfactored ship + suit!! Then we all walked up the beautiful glen - very perilous traveling, got our first rest. Another swim which felt good after the last exercise. After lunch Phil + Tull + Mary + I played some good bridge. Then nearly every one slept. Later Jack, Mary, Tull + I played rum. All the time we were eating + smoking. After supper we piled into boat, crossed river, got car + had nice ride home - Tull, Jack + I had hot argument about girls going to college. To bed early.

Wea. THUR. AUG. 31, 1922 Ther.

No mail from Bubbie - ^{don't} want it and yet I'll be mad if I don't hear from him. Washed my hair and got ready to go with the apples to the Country Club to Mrs. Drennan's luncheon for Mary Walker, Susan Levin, their cousin who is staying here, also went. The Hagers, Ed McCarley and Strambie were there. While we were eating I was called outside + there was Frank Bateman + the other two boys. Talked to them for a minute + told them to come back later. Ed looked darling again. We played bridge and an awful storm came up just as it did the last time - July 12. Tull + I were partners and amused every one with our friendly fights. After supper I took Mary, Mary W. + Susan to the Island. Dad went, too, couldn't keep him away!! Sat in box, not bad show. Drinks afterward. Time

Wea. . FRI. SEPT. 1, 1922 Ther.

Finally reached the Appel house and after a cigarette + a little gossip with Nell I started to make me a cape. Worked hard till luncheon, which Mrs. A. insisted on my having there. Nell got a card from B. and drove me out here to see if I got one! No! Then I went back to work again, but the darn cape just wouldn't work. Mrs. A. + I nearly lost our minds over it - she is making one for me. So I stopped + had "Laughter, Ltd" by Nina Wilson Putnam. Went home with splitting headache, and found a card from both B. + Fred Armstrong - they have met!! Also plenty letters from Al. Went up to the Appels to go to see George Arlies in "Peking Man" with Mrs. A. the twins, Mary + Lily.

Wea. SAT. SEPT. 2, 1922 Ther.

Letter from Bubby! But it said only "What are you then doing about Bubby?" Answered "You!" Went to Appels to work on my cape! Went out to garden which was in with Nell + tried to talk to her! Had lunch with me at K. W. for a change. Went back to the Appels + actually finished the cape successfully. So I had to wear it + go out to the Country Club with Mary W. to watch Nell play in tennis tournament. Talked to Joe, Fern Brinton + Jack Lancelotti there. Came home to dress for Beau who arrived at six. After dinner at Hamilton Club, Beau + I went over to Mary + Jack Bausman's where Beau is going to stay. He brought me some "Billie's" earrings! Dear old Beau. Jack brought me some candy to write to Molly, Mary + P. Sheffield.

Wea. SUN. SEPT. 3, 1922 Ther.

Went to church with the family - communion, but it was Mr. Patterson not Mr. Swenson. Went with Ma & Mrs. G. Loring's until dinner time. Then Dad lost his temper 'cause I have no film in the camera and after place was restored I took a walk - and some walls! Fifty miles an hour - way out to Alice Ford's & a longer way home! Alice showed us her sweater for sale - Mary Malone was there too. She is pretty. Rushed back to Appels thinking I was late & they were all asleep! Such a family! Finally we all went out in kitchen and helped ourselves to whatever we wanted. Mrs. A. there - darling. Phil there & later ^{Bob - goodbye!} played geography.

Labour Day
Wea. MON. SEPT. 4, 1922 Ther.

Alan went off on a motor trip so I will not be killed by him today. Faded around until time to go to V. H. with Ma. I went up to the Appels & will take Mary W. me out to Alice Ford's to see my sweaters. Will buy at one. Came back & started a game of bridge but Phil came & took us all out to guest house for a swim which felt wonderful on this hot day. Phil & Marie make me tired, too, always pinching - why don't they put it have done with it. I was especially invited not to appear at their party tonight with Dick & Doris! So Ma & I went to see Wallace Reid in "The Dictator" - very amusing. I said good-bye to Mary W. today - so sad - he is good.

Wea. TUES. SEPT. 5, 1922 Ther.

Went down town with Ma ended up in Dad's garage where they held a family reunion. I also handed him a bill - poor Dad. Went over to Mrs. G's to wait until lunch time. Came out to the house and later Beau + Dad came + we had the famous annual family group taken! Later Gus + I came out and we got Susan + Kevin + played bridge. Beau is not a brilliant player, but he was good enough to play.
He wanted to make in this terrific heat! Later we had a dinner party at the club - Jack + Mary Barrowman, Esther Woods, and Susan + Kevin + we had very nice + very good.
Susan + I left then + went to the Appels to play only with Alice + Phil + Nellie.

Wea. WED. SEPT. 6, 1922 Ther.

Letter from Bubby - a real one - just like B. Cut out a linen dress but my mind seems to be soaring elsewhere + had to stop! After lunch I went up to Nellie's. Only she + Lucie are there. Alice was asleep so we played Russian Rouble until she awoke. I got beaten - "this is not my day for bridge." Then I watched them eat sundae (I am refusing!) and we went for a nice ride in the f.o.d. I kept along its road for me to smoke + we discussed most everything. I went to the Y.W. with them for supper and afterward all + I went out to Miss Fattis + Lucie + Phil and he alone! We played bridge with Mingo + Susan + Kevin. Very nice. He persuaded all to stay all night. I read the extracts from my diary he kept together - who is a darling.

Wea. THUR. SEPT. 7, 1922 Ther.

Ma was sick all night but well, I didn't know it. My peeps came - they are beautiful. Well went home & I polished silver until time to dress for Mary & Ann's birthday at the Iris Club. It was very big but very nice - Marie's, Sophie's, Dot, Mops and Lillian Weaver sat at my table. Then we played bridge and I had rather luck - they no good cards. Was it because I had on "Bubbi's dress"? Any way I was glad when Reese Davis came to take me to the picnic - stop to change my clothes and they - we kept for Carolyn Fegley - Bubbi's girl. Duly died but we got along very well until Lib Long made remarks.
I was the only girl in swimming very nice picnic - only few there.
Ruth Packer, Lib & Harry. Two girls Ridgeway & Jack's came. I worked - good music.

Wea. FRI. SEPT. 8, 1922 Ther.

Worked hard doing various chores & felt as if I had accomplished some thing.
Blair was here so he &
I went down to the K.W.
& lunch together. Ma is still indisposed. Then Blair & I went shopping. Everything from started to Victor records - one of which I represented to the appeals in memory of Bubbi! Blair took a walk & I apparated at the appeals who seemed glad to see me as I was "absent" but accounted for "yester day".
I seemed on a blue linen dress, my drop in and walked home with my hand on their serving & smoking & thinking. Got home to find a fine letter from Al. He is getting better. Jess & Mary came to dinner with us and then we went to their apt. to play bridge - good. - J.O. won.

Wea. SAT. SEPT. 9, 1922 Ther. Wea. SUN. SEPT. 10, 1922 Ther.

got to work on my many books which I haven't touched since I was in Nassau! Some job, too. After lunch Ben went up to the Appels & persuaded Spay to go down town with me. She talked very much about Phil and that she is going to have nothing to do with him! That is so tiresome. Came back & I read Eve Post and Phil came in! Ha, ha. Poor I went home to dress for Katherine's wedding & Peggy Marshall. Went with Ben & the Baymen. It was in our church & very lovely. Then we went to reception at her house. Bridal party peepless but Junior Maxwell & I managed to stir things with confetti. Dancing. After 8 + 9. Left & went up to Appels with them. Phil didn't see as never left early this morning. Went to church with the family. Trying to have Mr. Swornly back. Went up to the Appels until Ben came for me in Jack's old Dodge. We went out to the Sun-dial Tea house and rode around. But there until our chicken & waffle dinner was ready. It was delicious. Lots of fun dining out with my Ben. He bought me some cigarettes. Went to his apt. & Elvitt & Bill Williams came. I had to send them off so Ben & I were alone at John & Louisa's as usual. He went there & stayed long - spent most of the time reading a scrap book of Remond's poems etc! Good B. I miss you tonight! Went up to Appels & supper - they missed me! Talked on Mrs. Brown's blue!

Wea. MON. SEPT. 11, 1922 Ther.

Packed and got into a bad humor over it - I ought to be getting used to it by now - perhaps it was the card from Dorothy when I wanted a letter that made me mad. I
and went down to to "spit" on her baby's pictures. She's still in a bad humor or about to be. She & I got into the Ford and went out to Dad's farm to gather mint. We lay there under the trees by the water and talked & talked and she by & by got me into a wonderful humor. On the way to supper we got just before who was motioned down for us - just as dear as ever. Dad bragged to me in front of her!! of appears for last game of they were drinking, Paul, too

Wea. TUES. SEPT. 12, 1922 Ther.

Mary & Nell came to see me start - hated to say bye-bye.
We were quite crowded, Ma, Pa Beau, Aunt L & me & looking to charter, & tons of baggage.
The train wouldn't work so Dad whistled. We had lunch at the Jean Harris in Harrisburg. Mary let some post cards and sent them to Bubbie, Ruthie & Phil & Mary & Nell! On the long lonely drive to Bellefonte I sat silent making up stories about me & Bubbie.
I did not get a letter from him today - I wonder just how much his mood has changed since the last letter.
Arrived here to find Mary very fat and an adorable baby in her arms - Billy and he really is lovely. I'm going to love him. Skender after dinner Beau, Ted, Mary & I started to play bridge when Hedy appeared.

got up at seven thirty and ate a huge breakfast!
Then I watched Mary wash & nurse Billy - he certainly is cute. Heurilla came in and we all went down down. Sent a post card to all! I my packet and during lunch on foot on porch & started writing a letter. I am not going to eat lunch on any more!
Then I went with Fred
- Mary to see this new house. It is going to be very attractive. Then washed my hair and set on lawn with Heurilla to dry it. Her. does her best to antagonize me! But for Mary's sake I shall try to avoid any quarrels. After dinner, Mary & I, together had a little chat while we sewed and then we played bridge with Beau & Fred. In the evening I got beaten. Not very much.

Wea. THUR. SEPT. 14, 1922 Ther. *

Letter from Bubbie?? Not until after I had taken a long walk & gone thru the match factory with Beau.
Then I came home to find the nurse and a card from D. saying "Really?" - answers to that of Sept. 2. Also a letter with only a number about my yachts! So during lunch I wrote to him & told him he could come to see me here - even in winter - what if he comes?
Then Ma, Beau & I drove with woodies to Lyndale to meet Uncle Fred. again.
Made up a box of Bubbie's letters. Bubbie's mother called me up asking me to go to a dance at Mela Park.
So after dinner we did apple and Ellis's mother came for me in a Ford. H. took Ellis, Beau nurse & danced with her all the evening. Beau went down with Fred & Mary & came home with us. I didn't get out.

Wea. FRI. SEPT. 15, 1922 Ther.

I stayed in bed without breakfast. My voice was finally with a letter from Aunt Mary's friend came in to see me in bed and Mary stayed while dressed. Late lunch or breakfast. In the afternoon I pulled threads to hemstitch. My blue quilt Helen came + we took the baby up to Mary to nurse.
Later we walked up to see the puffers to see Mrs. S.
But only Bobbie was at home, so she played bridge with us. Left in to see Mrs. Lingley - and Hugh. It is Aunt Fred's day so we had a dinner cake etc. Afterwards Mary + I persuaded Beant, Fred to play bridge and then Hugh + Scottie came in. So the septus all sang songs several times then Hugh + Scottie, Beant, Fred + Mary for a ride.

Wea. SAT. SEPT. 16, 1922 Ther.

Up early again - watched the baby's bath and then for a while before lunch.
Took our family snapshot and then went shopping in the car with Mrs. Whitson.
I call on the Cassin's Bay. In the afternoon Helen came down.
The boys went riding and we three girls sat on a sofa for a plan for going up.
We had a little Hugh to see us but he made a date for afterwards as we felt + told him not to come. Instead we invited Father (the family on a picnic) and when he arrived we welcomed him into Beant's room with some of our dresses.
We three put on our taxidors, but they wouldn't dance until after dinner - so old they said. But, then, they were a scream - horrible naughty painted creatures. We were all singing - never sang so

Wea. SUN. SEPT. 17, 1922 Ther.

Went to Sunday School with Heinie and had to teach some bad little boys. Then I went to church and sang in the choir - something as I was the only soprano with Mrs. Pable, a good deal to them. I went with Hugh + Fred to get a bottle of water from the Jordan River with which to baptize the baby. which great event, occurred right after lunch. I was not asked to be a godmother - Aunt F. + Heinie were - but - ? ? ? It seems to be giving him gifts. Later Becky + Mary + I went to the club with Fred + watched him play golf. Maureen + Horn, Mary's cousins, came to supper with us - they were very nice. Beau had to leave at 8:15 - went to station to see him off. So, I had small visit with Beau + smoked until bedtime.

Wea. MON. SEPT. 18, 1922 Ther.

Got card from Bubbie - still out west, and I was so nervous about mine of Sept. 14. After Mary had the baby dressed I suggested playing him in a walk. So we started up to hill and eventually got to the top, to the big house. They invited us to stay to luncheon which we did.
A rather funny really did, but I only watched them eat. Hugh was there - why doesn't he cause me the rightest gives any more?
Later we came home expecting to find Phil, but no. Went down town with Heinie + then took a long backy drive with the family and thought on my usual subjects. Family out to dinner, too. Fred, Mary + Heinie + I used supper. I played bridge.
Later started "This Freedom"

Wea. TUES. SEPT. 19, 1922 Ther.

Went with Ma + the Aunt in the car on some errands and then a little ride. While they ate lunch I wrote a few letters - Al, Blanche and Nan Beebe - trying to peep into my future - it seems so sort of amusing just now. Fiddled around with Mary, smoking, until it was time to go up to her - was tea party + help me. But by the time we got there every thing was stirred and we had only to eat. Later we crossed the street and inspected her house - per don, think of it - outlets where she has to stay! Not for mine!
Hugh + Nevin + Leathie came in - Nevin, I went to a band, but the rest followed in Hugh's Ford + we finally got in + followed band and acted like fools.

Wea. WED. SEPT. 20, 1922 Ther.

Started out early to Williams port in the car with Ma, Uncle Fred + Aunt Louise. A wonderful road all the way. This is the day I was supposed to see Burdick - where is he? Went shopping ran into Mrs. Putt + Mrs. Forsman!! While they sat at lunch I wrote the following notes I wrote letters - a great long one to Louise and a very terse to B.
Then we had a nice silent ride home. Mary welcomed me with the news that hell had called up for a game + that Budgie wanted to drive up + take me back!!! Drills galore.
Had to argue lengthily with the family but finally I called up + told her to come! Hugh came to dinner.
Fred + I had a rough talk and then we four went to see John + Mary + more in other cars.

Wea. THUR. SEPT. 21, 1922 Ther.

Tried to collect my thoughts to pack but Bubbie & Tull arrived at a little after 11 and then! At first I was so weak I had to sit down every two minutes. Tull came up stairs & we talked a blue streak - to all my girl, too. She likes them & they like her but that is not unnatural. After a rather upset lunch - Aunt L. having to meet Phil - Mule, Ted and I went out - B. me & Tull in front seat. It was a perfect day for that lovely lake drive. Got here at 1:30 in time for dinner - at the Appels, Bureau. Kordy, it is nice to see them all again and B. is so dear that every thing seems bright now. B. gave me cigarette holder!! Went to see Ted Stone in "Top Top" - very good - B. & I sat down. Came home & talked etc till late.

Wea. FRI. SEPT. 22, 1922 Ther.

I was started to sleep with me but deserted in middle & night. Charlotte & George Appel came in while I was eating breakfast. George is getting better looking but - no emotions here for me. I went down town with me and we went up to see Kate. Bubbie came to lunch and afterwards we wanted to go swimming but finally decided on the movies. B. & I were left alone for a while - etc. Then Henry Snyder came in & later Lattie & George so we all went to see Oscar Wilde's "Woman of no Importance". I was restless & teased B. Lattie is very amusing about B. & me. Came back and played bridge. B. stayed to dinner. Kate came in & tried to persuade me to spend 2 more nights with her, but no. Then B. & I were alone again but at first something was the matter and it was awful. Finally B. took me on a walk & relieved all my fears away. Then! Damn him! ^{we really should} but we must not.

Wea. SAT. SEPT. 23, 1922 Ther.

Marie & I talked so late that it was hard to get up. Went with Nell for my skirt & then packed & dressed. Bubbie came & George & Kate so we went down town for me. Sent telegram to Aunt & to meet me. And then B. began to coax me to stay and got me very upset so that is the end he sent another telegram. Hurrah! his will is stronger than mine! After lunch at the apples & some kisses we two went with Sam & Phil to see an F.M. football game - the first of the season. Stopped at Louis & John's for the children to see "Hurly Burly". We came to dinner here again and afterward Charlotte & Jerry came. B. asked C. to go with us tomorrow - Mrs. A. by appointment but I didn't need it - and she said she can't go. Well, B. sat (+ lay) in dining room after lunch by a stray cat! "It's well for us in a democracy" B. Bubbie on

Wea. SUN. SEPT. 24, 1922 Ther.

Got up soon after six to go to the train with the girls. Train came late so we had nice last talk. Went back with Mrs. G. & packed & talked to her until Bubbie came for me. We got Kate & Dick & drove up to Harrisburg. He took me down to the train there & kissed me good-bye and then every thing got black & I ached. Sat still till I finally woke up, wondering what time it was. Hurried into dining car - across the only woman among a lot of men! I smoked a cigarette and soon we pulled into Rock Haven. No one to meet me!! Went in a few minutes. Phil & Jerry & Kate drove up & brought me home. No holding! Phil, Mary & I drove up to Pottsville. Phil & I drove alone & dropped me at B. & his Bubbie Whitney! He left the supper & we went to sleep at last - I, Fred & Mary & Bubbie.

Wea. MON. SEPT. 25, 1922 Ther.

Kept late and they appeared me by putting baby Billy in bed with me - gave me the queerest sensation - a sort of premonition of the future.
Mary + I went down town + talked about Bubbie. In the afternoon wrote to Mrs. Apple. She caught me cussing in Mary's room so now I have her permission again. He isn't driving + I stop to see Mary's maid to be. As usual I sat + talked about Bubbie. Do I always think like this when I have a day? I went down to dinner room with Elliot Bud. Hugh, Marie, her friend Frances + all. Scottie + Fred + Mary were also there. I got supper. sat there + talked + couldn't tell I was really meeting big Hugh + I went out to get at stars. Bud tried to write me on way home but he, Bubbie

Wea. TUES. SEPT. 26, 1922 Ther.

Woodie drove Mary, Marie, Frances Hall + me out to the club where we tried to play golf. I was nervous at first but they are not so awfully much better than I am. Wrote to - no, I didn't, I couldn't decide to whom to write. At two thirty I went with Aunt + Ma in the car to Philipsburg.
Was a beautiful drive - I enjoyed every minute.
We stop at the Philips hotel. After dinner Mary + I went upstairs to "look after the baby" + enjoyed our cigarettes + intimate conversation. Then Frances came + told us about her children's aid work - most interesting. Why don't I do good like that? Later we played bridge with Fred + Hugh came in too. Mary tried to say house with me but I am too busy.

Wea. WED. SEPT. 27, 1922 Ther.

Happy birthday Mimi! She & Frances came down early to see the baby's bath. We sat around & then went supper.
Dad left - the rest took him to the train at 10:15.
I have a frightful headache and feel queer.
Left while Fred & Mary were there. Mary came up to thank Buddie for his cigarettes & she looked around reading my diary - But I did not seem to care. She discovered, however, that I felt the same way, when I left Anson as when I left Bob.
We played Russian Banks & took care of the baby. After dinner we had our usual smoke & talk.
Then I finished "Sargata St." & she went to bed.
Cousins Ray were there and it was a quiet peaceful evening.

Wea. THUR. SEPT. 28, 1922 Ther.

Got to work on a waist for me & succeeded in getting it all sewed up before they had finished their lunch. Then, accidentally threw my self on the bed and the first thing I knew Ma was waking me. So Mervetta & I went down to the P.O. and Mary joined us to go up to Mimi's house. Had lunch & read "Life" until Fred came to cross the street & inspect the building of their house. Walked down the hill with a cart. I am being friendly toward the whole make world today.
Went over to get a whole cart baskets & admired the babies.
After supper went with Dad & Mimi & Mervetta to see a dance to see if Mimi. Enjoyed it all.
Dad's petting, although it would not compare with

Wea. FRI. SEPT. 29, 1922 Ther.

Washed some stockings & then Heinie came & she & Mary & I set out for the lime quarry.
First we saw Paul's works in his chemist office and then Buddie took us over the rest of the works & way down 400 ft in the mine. It was marvelous.
In the afternoon I got a dandy letter from Nell just as I was writing to her - so mine goes much more enthusiastic - dear old Nell. Heinie & I went down town & then Mary & I went driving with an elder. We sat out in front seat. After a delicious goose dinner Mary & I seemed to be left alone so we went up in the sky & played Russian Bank & crunched & sang & acted simple generally. But we had to go home so I read J. O. Curwood's "Country Beyond"

Wea. SAT. SEPT. 30, 1922 Ther.

No mail from Buddie - is he really so unkind after all?
Mary & I tried in bed with the nurse. I washed my hair & sat out on the tennis court with Billy & then I brought him in & "changed" him & he had a beautiful time playing with my hair. Oh, Billy, when you grow up! In the afternoon Fred took Mary & me up to the 4th football game. We were in a hall of a wood & didn't say a word. The game was splendid, altho it was so hot the players took off their jerseys!! Had a soda & then game home. Then Mary & I were away for dinner so I got much Fred talking - about the shorts of mine!
Mary & I signed because I could so sweet & innocent. I love black that way. Then I wanted to get Fred to play bridge but Fred didn't so I played Russian Bank.

Stayed in bed till time to rush off to church - I sat in the chair again & tried to look beautiful to make up for my lack of voice. Hugh came up to the house & tried to help him a la Lillian Leitzel. After dinner I got a letter from Dad, from Phil & from Bubbie! Praises be! What a mail - oh, Bubbie - e-e-e!
For a while I thought my feeling for him had kept - but it slowly ebbed back - I don't know why. Mary & I looked around all afternoon with a combination of making sandwiches, snacking & reading. Then we dressed & Ted & she & Neenie & Hugh & Bud & Ellis & I went to Bud's cabin in Fishing Creek to eat our supper.
Hugh & I roughed up & then I slept & put my face down on the corner of table. Lordy, it nearly killed me & I cried much to my shame. Neenie was dead & Ted & every one. Hugh & I was sorry & so

Had a nervous time preventing Ma from seeing my red bruised back. Poor Mary is in bed but she got up later. I cut out a shirt waist as long as my aching back would allow me to. Neenie was here, too.
She & Mary disappeared but I didn't care - merely fell asleep in library. After lunch Mary & Ted up & took me to the doctor with them, but I'm O.K. Then I finished my book on the tennis court and went driving with Ma & Aunt K. to State College & around admiring the wonderful autumn colors. Thought of what I'll write to Pa. After supper (Mrs.
Montgomery there) Hugh came to "hold my hand" & I also had a date with Bud but I got away with it - as Mary in bed, Ted & Bud just brought me at good bridge.

Wea. TUES. OCT. 3, 1922 Ther.

Mary is still in bed. Nellie came to go down town with me today I bought wedding presents for glady & Virginia. Ticker sat with Mary & smoked while she ate her lunch.
Then I wrote to these two brides-elect and to Emily Linard. Read to Mary - Sat. eve. Post - and then, with two printerrupted papers placed of me sat in the library to write to Purdie-Lover & some long time later it was, too! But I don't believe will like it especially. By now I'd love to be with my ~~now~~ After dinner sat with Mary until 10:30 by called - talked & then until Fred & Hugh came home - then we all talked until we went up to the sheppers to play bridge. Dear little Mrs. Shepper made coffee for us like old times.

Wea. WED. OCT. 4, 1922 Ther.

Phew! Am I on the sea or not?
I must have eaten something bad for I certainly am sick! Slept all morning on Mary's couch. Then ate apple dumplings for lunch - felt much better! Played Russian Pamper with Mary. Made the baby's formula and went down with her & Aunt L. It is as warm as a day in June. I wish it were June - I do not like the fall with its uncertainty for this family!
Not what could be above what than to know what was going to happen next week!!? Returned parcel to Mrs. Martin & admired the babies again. After dinner Fred & I went up to the sheppers - played bridge with Betty & Nellie. Pete shepper just home, dropped in - with his usual wit.

Wea. THUR. OCT. 5, 1922 Ther.

Feeling peppy today - got a lot of long-neglected work off my hands.
Minnie and I went down town to buy an a hat. She used an abstract. For the afternoon I pulled threads in a collar till it was nearly blind. Mary was getting up again. Later she & I went driving with her & Aunt F. - around town & into village. Hugh went down to Lawrence today - just on business.
The family bought but to dinner yet. I had a gorgeous time & working.
Fred was rather misop-tious and wouldn't let us go Fred to play bridge, so Mary & I played Russian Bank
and when I went to sleep I forgot I was sitting card on card, card on card.

Wea. FRI. OCT. 6, 1922 Ther.

Started off early with Ma Aunt F. and Uncle F. in the car to Montgomery where we looked at davenports in a factory, none to our liking so we started back. Stop pay at Williamsport for lunch.
Too much did not eat and was greatly tempted to write to B. & S. again.
But I was tired & sleeping in instead. We went to a furniture store there and found just the davenport & chairs Aunt F. & I had in mind of Uncle F. bought in. I see a great future for me in that davenport when it is in Fred & Mary's house!! Oh, lordy, yes!!
After dinner I went to home down & took Mary time to see Lou Moore in from ground. Yes. When we came out here & looked at the davenport Finished part of my hair ^{cutting} + pulled threads for the net-in Aunt's room with Jim & Ma.

 Then I got dressed to go up to see what best getting along with Hugh. Judge Dingley & Elsie & Fred went with us.
 It was raining, but we went early and sat in the covered stand. Hugh is adorable, calls me a little demon of the jungle - due to my leopard. He's sweet and my temperament, just somewhat like Bubbe's.
 "demoralized" madona better. After dinner we waited for Hugh to come, and he came. He said he took us to Hugh - just as Hugh arrived. We fooled around, kissing and putting our cheeks together & sticking our tongues. Most unsentimental. Mary retired & sat & Hugh & I ate and Hugh kissed me early. He is so Slept late & made a mad rush to church & the choir. Again I prayed that I might hear from Bubbe and again it was answered & I got a lovely letter.

 After dinner, Mary & I got ready to take a walk & then it rained and soon we could go & we picked up Isabel, Fredericks and scrambled thru Bramble fields. Went over to the shop - bunch of flowers there, & sp. at picnic & got us to come down here to supper. Mary, Hugh & I went and played bridge with Hugh & Elsie & other except in also Mary, Aunt & Uncle F. - I could have gone up in smoke!! But we kept on playing. Then we went to supper. Downing around Hugh's neck - Peter tried to kiss me - Scottie is a scream - stayed all night

Wea. MON. OCT. 9, 1922 Ther.

Uneasy five minutes while I thought of big splendid Hugh upstairs in his bed - but slept it off. He was gone when Neenie & I came down to breakfast. Helped her with the beds. Then we came down here and looked around before going down town to buy a little packet which we filled with fruit & telly pop & a cigar & gave it to Betty at the bank.
We all nearly died laughing during luncheon. I packed so it seems I must go back with the - yes - too.
Mary & I examined the silver - (see back memo) and went up to Neenie's. She talked & I sampled every thing in kitchen and then built a fire & sat in her lap & we talked religion.
After supper Peter's mother came in to see me. Hugh & Neenie came to play bridge with Mary & & I was mad and we joined people.

Wea. TUES. OCT. 10, 1922 Ther.

It is raining - rejoice! I can not go to the today!
I tried to draw a picture of the baby smiling. Neenie held him and he howled so I did quite a good one of Mary. (after luncheon which I am bored!) Mary & I tried to draw a "deusex-machina" and two cakes, you know. & later we played Russian Bank, took the baby over to all cousin Mary & then walked in the rain to see if her house is still there! - they are so slow about getting it ready.
After supper Ellis dropped in & that night & then Cathy & Peter! Quite a gathering & I read Mary & Ellis a bridge. Later we had cake & gingerale in the kitchen. Hugh stayed long after every one left & he said he & I argued & was so much

Wea. WED. OCT. 11, 1922 Ther.

It is cloudy but we are going home any way. Went over to say good-bye to cousin Mary. Heine came down to say good-bye to me - feeling very sorry - fat. Aunt Josephine & Ma packed into the bureau and boat in front with Woody and off we started - stop at match factory to say good-bye to the kids - left about 11. We ate lunch by a dear little stream. The road was hugely familiar & suggestive of Sunday & Sept. 21. We got to the after noon & were welcomed by Miss Lattie. Went shopping. Dad is, as usual, queer toward Aunt K. I talk her & Ma & me. & the memoirs - Guy Boates Foot in the "masquerade" after supper. Then, to bed & sleep with me. Not full.

Wea. THUR. OCT. 12, 1922 Ther.

Aunt K. & I are good bed-fellows. We did a little shopping and then went to rolled on toward Vt. I wish I were going back - to Hugh & Lottie & the kids & Bud & Pete. I wasn't going to let any one reason was sick - but I went to see Lottie. I'm glad to learn that she doesn't care much of the college. Ma & I had to eat at a confectionary as the sun & V.W. are over my with a convention. Then I'm packed & later Lottie & I went for a walk, a talk & a massage. After dinner went up to see Mrs. Apple - the house is so still & empty. The Dr. - dear his heart pierced me! I talked & for a long time, with a heart aching for the dear summer. She is very dear and shall be there after.

Wea. FRI. OCT. 13, 1922 Ther.

I'm already back at my old lazy habit of sleeping late.
Got up and tried to mend many of my clothes.
Then I went in to Aunt Ellie's to have needle soup with her. She was invited to stay at Miss Pattie's. I had a lovely time and was very pleased with myself because Dad enjoyed it - there is nothing I admire like adaptability.
Then I met Charley & Kate & spent a hopping with them, stopping to say good-bye to the family lizard. Went back to Kate's where I ate & I smoked & we all talked until midnight.
After supper I came home & wrote to Beau, Phil & Edie de Bremond.
Then I turned up to play Russian Rummy & then I ate & watched us

Wea. SAT. OCT. 14, 1922 Ther.

Hi, how I wanted a letter from Dad but I got one from Hugh only. Two nice. Picked a dress to go with the Ross eschewing & me to Miss Daisy Gubb's large luncheon for the reading class at Mt.
Hope. I was only young to go but Miss Lily Beall & Miss Brooks were there both of whom I like very, very much.
It was a lovely meal about twenty guests. After ward I walked around & played with Tugie the dog.
Came home to eat where Dad & I met Dad with Mr. & Mrs.
Crispus, whom we knew in Bermuda. He is the funniest man I've ever known. Mr.
Schroeder took my three ladies to see Dick Bartlemas in "Loring" - very good. My & I went & were & held my hand. A strange man in the aisle tried to talk my soul till I moved!! Took Mrs. C. to the Towers House where they are our guests.

* Wea. SUN. OCT. 15, 1922 Ther.

Felt rather and at the last minute decided not to go to church - read over some letters & wrote a few. Then Ma & Dad & the brothers in their car came for me. We drove to the farm & around that I could not enjoy it as I would have liked to because of my awful cramps. We all had a rather misty feel at the club and then the brothers left. I stop at the apples on my way. Dear Mrs. A. told, having no maid now the girls. Came home to enjoy my cramps in solitude. Ma came & gave me some gin so that I was able to try to read "My own Japan" by Julian & met. But finally I gave up hope of peace & went to bed hugging water bottle.

Wea. MON. OCT. 16, 1922 Ther.

Slept late, but felt quite peppy when I was finally awoke and proceeded to rip my serge dress. Ma & I lunched at the V. V. & then went to the office after where I dug up some "notes & old lace" to do the my poverty-stricken body. And we, knowing we looked for a hat. I came home and altered & pressed a bit then lay down, & I started at the last moment I wrote a letter to Aunt Annie and then dressed to go with Joe Brinkman & Beulah Chapter, after dinner, to Charlotte to play bridge. We were early so drove a bit first. Later much of the conversation was on politics which I hate & which put me into a low mood.

Wea. TUES. OCT. 17, 1922 Ther.

got mail from Molly & Mary - so different & yet both so dear to me... Ma & I worked hard on the rearranging of my wardrobe. After lunch we did a little shopping then went up to Katis' & after a surprise we went to Mary's shop to have our dresses fitted. Mrs. Wade, the manager, was very enterprising for us and sold me a lipstuck, which I have long wished for. Then Kate & I went back to our house where, as usual, I sat so much on my uppers. Read "Asia" at P. M. till time to meet the family at the club for supper. Came right home - I have the old lust for reading that I have not had for four or five years! Why?

Wea. WED. OCT. 18, 1922 Ther.

Quite disappointed at my being no letter from Russia. I don't want him to stop yet. Scrubbed my arse & wore it. After lunch Ma & I slipped as usual and accomplished about as little. Then went up to Katis where I found Lottie, too & all in a silly convivial frame of mind. I joined in and when we went down town anyone following us could have thought we had lost our senses! But why grow old at 80? Went to "Golden Cup" for tea. Went back with Kate & read Rupert Brooke's poetry to us. "My poetry?" "No, what has got into you?" asks Elvira. Talked at to Miss F. Calder in P. M. before supper time & afterwards went home & read "Myotensies Japan Truly"

Wea. THUR. OCT. 19, 1922 Ther.

Dreamt about B. all night so we not our pride to receive a savings, ranting letter from him.
I saved + ripped and no sewed + ripped. Finally we went out to lunch.
On meeting aunt May at the P.M. afterwards we went looking for rooms for grammar + I opted in to the poor sup Mrs. Appel, running fun tent. They went up to Katie - she informed me that Bubbe is in town!! I almost got sick at my stomach with excitement. Kate called me up for bridge tonight with Phil Doug + friends. Who is friend even Ma + Dad were betting that I knew it is B. Kate took a lovely walk + refresh. after supper I went out + I dressed + was ready when B. + Phil came for me. We rode, played bridge + then B. + I rode - I opt - I'm as glad he's here and oh, why did I

Wea. FRI. OCT. 20, 1922 Ther.

Dreamt B died + I drove us both over a fenceless rail road bridge ugh! What a nightmare, but I had an awful stomach + sleeplessness. Damn!
Washed my hair during the morning and after lunch Bubbe came for me at the P.M. According to Ma's orders we got a third - Kate - and drove out to a mob race where we parked + gave Kate a lesson in technique.
Poor Kate - we are afraid but it is Ma's fault.
Then we got Phil + drove a bit more.
During supper I thought of marrying B! He said he would stay with his family tonight but rather expected him to call up.
Margaret Hocking - old coachman's wife came to see Ma.
Wrote to tell Mary, Mrs. Ellett M. Bates + them. Some about art.

Wea. SAT. OCT. 21, 1922 Ther.

So the third "21" Bubbie & I are together again! All morning I served & listened to Miss Lottie & Ma talk of B. & thought of him incessantly myself. Then Ma & I went to lunch but I wasn't hungry & couldn't eat a thing - that worried her & she was dear & made me comfy lying down. But, alone, I got to thinking of B. & why he didn't call me up and get myself or work up calling Bubbie Bubbie that I was just about ready to burst out when he did call up. He came for me & we took a ride. I was feeling shaky & he rather quiet but it was nice & we talked & it was nice. Later - in cold blood again I decided I don't love him but when he came to take me to the movies I didn't remonstrate when we went to the river & parked in a lovely spot. It was heavenly. B. was wonderful & I love him awfully.

Wea. SUN. OCT. 22, 1922 Ther.

Got Pat to go to church with me as Dad is sick & Ma is playing nurse. We met Charlotte & walked home with her. Then I went up to the Barrens & have dinner - Ma was there, too. It was very hard to sit beside Bubbie & keep a straight face. After a while they went & B. & I got Phil & Lottie & started out for a ride. Then we decided to go to Phila. for supper!! And we went to a cute little tea house "Spread Eagle" just all the way into Phila. Bubbie was even nicer than usual & I was just bubbling over with happiness. He showed me a "safety". Phil & Lottie were acting a load, but I was content just to be so near to B. But - when we got home the families were in an uproar. After many storms, they allowed us to go until 11!! We went where we were last night - but I had an awful feeling that I don't love B. & he seemed cool - oh, I don't know.

Wea. MON. OCT. 23, 1922 Ther.

Got awake with a contented feeling to be without Bubbie.
Got to work on my pile of clothes again. After lunch at V. W. with Ma I went up to Chas. Lattie's. In a short time we went over to Kate's but found as usual, she had to go down town. Then we went back to Lattie's - dead tired and tried to play three handed bridge. We were each very silly & the old dumb game ridiculous. I told them I don't love B + yet to my own harm - but I laughed when I said it. Was called to me to go to Miss Alice Givins & supper. John Lattie called good! - I was going out. But I came home early & sat downstairs alone & made up a seven verse poem to B - wishing Happy Birthday!
So I don't love him - what?

Wea. TUES. OCT. 24, 1922 Ther.

Got a friendly letter from Hugh - no thrills - I think only thru with thrills. Ma went away & I had to wait till Dad got up so I started in to draw a "dramatized Madonna" - even really for B. It started well. Then I went for Lattie to lunch with me but she couldn't it & I was mad! Ate alone & then slept - still early so I slept in to see Mrs. Appel. When I left the dog followed me & gave me various propositions.
Was glad to meet Kate for moral support! We met Charlotte - without car which was a blow and again I went over town shopping.
When Ma & I returned from supper Theodore Appel called me up & came for me to go in & play bridge with him & Mrs. A. & Phil. It was just bore - but, oh, for Bubbie.

Wea. WED. OCT. 25, 1922 Ther.

Got letter from Nell & the first thing I knew I was crying!
How silly the girl was that?
Couldn't get settled to any work. Got Lattie by phone chick lunch with me so I met her at the hospital & discovered she didn't want to. When I was very silly again - I almost cried & she saw it & was kind but when she went in the house for a moment I got out of the car & walked rapidly toward her car while I had a good cry.
A nice policeman talked to me & named the blue pretty fish & how the reservoir works.
Then I went to lunch alone, better. But Ma & I argued very expensive eat. she had been with Lattie on my porch! I went home & except for going to Kandie's to eat with Ma, was there all - Oh, no, Miss Lattie & I went to see Wallace Reid in "Nice People" and

Wea. THUR. OCT. 26, 1922 Ther.

Happy Birthday, Bubbie! But I have not the old time warm feeling at the thought of you.
Ma went to Phila. with Mrs.
Hartman as I had wished to go. Dad then spent another fine (fine) and had a delightful morning playing horse & trying to sketch.
Got Kate to go to V.W. with me & then we walked out here carrying baskets for Dad! as he was sleeping went back with Kate & after a little shopping we lunched at her house.
She tried to make me mad by saying nasty things about Bubbie but it only stirred up some thing yet near to the old feeling. Came home, only to twist my ankle & go all the way back to supper alone.
Bandaged foot & head. Then letter came in, asked me to go home Oh, God!

Wea. FRI. OCT. 27, 1922 Ther.

My foot still quite quite a little - hobbled around. The nurse doing various little chores. After lunch I went up to Katie. She had to go down town & Lattie came to go with her as I could not on account of my ankle. I went across the street however, to call on Lattie. Lattie and I discovered later that she had moved! So I came back to Katie's room & smoked & read "Glimpses of the Moss" by Edith Wharton - it is the story of a poor rich girl like me! Still Kate didn't return & I began to be filled with thoughts of Lattie. When she came I left & after dinner at the club went alone in a car & read about Japan until she came to play Banquet. I wish I were married.

Wea. SAT. OCT. 28, 1922 Ther.

When the postman rang, I looked for a letter from Jo - but when the first time it failed, and when that meant the old paper is gone, or the letter behind it. Filled my velvet dress. Mrs. Glimmer is home and brightened our lunch again. Had a short before going out alone. There is a ball game & a tea by Rodney Buchanan to which I had no one to take me, but truly I do not mind. Lattie, yesterday had no one but Lattie she was at school today - she really does mind. Here it, anywhere she I should weep - not carcase!! I told, I was busy sewing - got an awfully interesting fit on and Ma kept me. Occasionally, when I remembered, I thought of B. too many days like today, never, get on my nerves.

Wea. SUN. OCT. 29, 1922 Ther.

Went to church with family.
Miss Lily Beall asked us to motor this afternoon - nice. Met Charlotte & walked up to Kate's with her - a pocket & Mrs. Beall walked in on us! After lunch Ma & I came out here to get ready for Miss Beall - but when she came, who should come also, but Sam Little!
Who of his own I could hardly go and I think he realized it - so I got ready for him and was nice and we had a right good time. Miss Tracy was there, so I rode with her. We went to Mt Hope, which was only a bridge & had tea & John & I walked around the lovely grounds.
Later in evening David was in at home when Hugh was dropt in & we talked & really enjoyed talking to him.

Wea. MON. OCT. 30, 1922 Ther.

Got up - at last feeling entirely out that brown silk dress - and did so, successfully. After lunch I started up to Kate's and met Lattie and walked miles on a board with her. Then we went to Kate's and played three-handed bridge. In order not to overdo we put up odds on it and of course I had to get foolish in the end and lose! Ma was at Mrs. Bruneman's so I got some sympathy from her & we all went down town & gauded.
After dinner - rolls & tea for me, including Ma & I went to see Harold Boy & in "Grandma's Boy"
- very funny - and Louella Salvadge in "Primitive Love" - very cute. But I was not over-entertained - I tried

Wea. TUES. OCT. 31, 1922 Ther.

Letter from Blau - nice, but not what I was looking for, subconsciously, I think! Worked on my dress again. In the afternoon I went up to Mrs. Appels - nice chat with her, then rang Mrs.
Bartman's door in vain to deliver a book. Finally I reached Kate's & found Lottie & Kate answering themselves in flats top story room. It is what our old billiard room used to be.
We played bridge & Emily Ann and came in with an adorable baby. We all four went to market & went home with big & little Emily! After supper I went up to the apples where I met Phil - we bought some cigarettes & then settled down to play duplicate bridge with Dr.
& Mrs. Appel! It was great!!

Wea. WED. NOV. 1, 1922 Ther.

Still no mail - it is fun my how people forget me - Al, Nan, Blauco - all of them - & Pauline. Tried to work and succeeded only in dyeing a blue lace.
Went down town - met Tony & Kate - the latter waited while I sent to dentist & then we went in to see Miss Nona Brown's new book shop.
Very nice, indeed. I went home with Kate & a very good lunchbox. When Charles came we took Lottie & went out to the field at the end of Orange street. Read Rupert Brooke's poems. After supper Lottie got the guitar.
Dick's place in a bridge game at her house. Phil & Kate & Lottie & me!!!
But we had loads of fun
- talking over the summer! and Phil was really dear.

Wea. THUR. NOV. 2, 1922 Ther.

David I know whether B. is not writing to me because I told him that was a way to stop thinking about me, or if he has no desire to?
They say he is coming home to visit - what time?
I served + went to dentist after lunch, went to ask Mrs. Appel to come here to play bridge tomorrow but she can't. Went to Lester's + later went to library with her + got out a book on Psychology + Freud's book on Dreams - Doubtless suggestion.
Then I failed to meet Kate + went to Emily's. Edith Kepler was there, but left.
Kate came in but couldn't stay. Bought groceries for Emily - just Jane Hopkins + then drank tea Emily so nicely prepared. Ag came home. Left to meet Matt didn't come! ^{Borrowed my book} missed many a. to get in.

Wea. FRI. NOV. 3, 1922 Ther.

Have two good reasons for dreaming now - first because it's nearly always about B. + second, because I like to try to study it à la Freud! I served in duo tragedy, then rushed up to get Kate for lunch.
She wasn't ready, so I went to the V. + told her Grandma not to wait for me.
But I waited for Kate - then we went down town finally ending up in her bedroom where Katie joined us + we bridged + smoked. Katie left - Kate + I were amused by Mr. Brinley at Mrs. Pennington's door, she in window above! Then I read Walt Whitman until she called to ring me to go to Grandma at V.U. + give her her supper. Dear Grandma is getting a bit old. Why is age so awful? Went home alone + served + finally, back acting settled down to read Freud

Saw it was coming as I had meant I got it from him. Well, he is just so always but somehow it all sounded a bit like a "line." (The letter in the dream "we were 110° hot but now 72°" was nice). After for a while & then washed my hair, manicured etc as Robbie may come home.

After supper sat on Mrs.

most encouraging, and pushed me to write.
In the way, however, I kept to see King Apple to the Art League, Portrait Classes, 3 Arts Club, K. Flynn, Zibbie Hill, Mrs. Hunt, Mrs.

We talk with King & his Bob Goodell came later & we played geography - Lottie was in to play for a while.

She walked home with me.

We went away out to Upper she left to meet her dear lost our senses at the looking

 Aunt May went with us.
 Rushed home to sew.
 This dress is harder to

 I rushed into Kate's for a cigarette to calm them.
 She said nasty things about B. damn a B. any-morally & physically - because there is no outlet

I stayed in bed while everyone went to my old thought - just again - I know. Got all dressed up in brown fit to kill and took a stiff car down to the club where I saw Ma & Dad before they went to a dinner party at the farm. - and while I had my dinner in lovely glory. Then I came back and actually slept a little longer - what would

Towards evening I wrote a long letter to Mary and one to Bean. Ma brought me a milk shake - yum! yum!
Finished book & played minds.

Wea. MON. Nov. 13, 1922 Ther.

pictorially came for lunch.
Kate & I did a bit of shopping & came out late where I tried to do a little sketch of her. It didn't get very good

I can do - what would Cousin Albert Hay came in to see us & then Phil - with long talk about his infected eye, which was cause of our trip. He took us out in his Ford - we went to the Biltmore to tea & Beau met us there. Then I changed my dress & we four went to dinner at the Palais Royal. Very good. Beau & Phil, mostly Phil danced with me to that marvelous Paul Whiteman music and I just felt like meeting

Wea. WED. NOV. 15, 1922 Ther.

Aunt Louise and I got up early and then of course had to wait for Phil who came to take us to see his new nice apt. and to select wall paper for it. Then we went around to see some art schools & places for me to live - Aunt & I were awed & did all the talking - I began to wonder if I could manage in this town! Then we went shopping, buying rugs for Fred & Mary's house. In the afternoon it rained & Aunt was tired & Phil had a "business" date so I wrote a long sort of impersonal letter to Debbie & was sorry I sent it. Olivia Johnson & Phil came to tea - she as sweet as ever - & then Blanche & the boys came - we talked & sung. Moton to Ma, Al Clark called up, tried to dissuade to go to dinner at Palais Royal with Aunt. Phil & Lin Biddle. Phil got home later & evening time was rather merry - well.

Wea. THUR. NOV. 16, 1922 Ther.

Fantastic night - there seemed to be so many problems I couldn't solve and the sight of the sun helped. Went over to Altman's on Oxford for Aunt's food. Al Clark appeared & talked to me for two hours. He was just as sweet as ever - but when I got to my room I found a telegram from Rubie! Oh, Rubie! Phil came to lunch with us & we ran into Katie & her friends from Jack Haven who's charged while we ate. Then we packed & dear Aunt left & Phil took me in the park telling me his wild tales & then left my bag at the Ward's & took me to meet Al for tea at the Plaza. I waited & still waited & he never came! Mad! I was boiling but it was funny! Had dinner here at the Ward's then Dean & Ritchie Boyd & I went to the theatre to see "Up she goes." Blanche & Phil were with us too & afterward we went to the Plantation & danced & watched the rigger dance & Phil drank & lost his cane! Oh, soft bed!

Wea. FRI. NOV. 17, 1922 Ther.

Up at dawn it seemed to be one thing for breakfast. Then I rushed off to meet Mary Margaret & go to the Art League with her - very interesting. Then I met Blanche at her father's apt and talked to "Gracie" (Mrs. Stetson) who is just the same. Blanche & I went down town - taking Mirette! We went into a hotel to smoke, accomplished nothing & then left her to meet Debbie's train. There he was and I kissed him in the station! Nice! We wandered around the streets looking for some place to eat, but really just talking. Went to Washington Square, finally. I talked too much. Don't believe I love him any more. He had to leave, so I rode on a bus, then came home & slept like a dead one. Rushed down to see a room for me before dinner. It is very nice. I do hope Dean comes. Dinner at the Ward's. Looked at old books & discussed matters. I'm so tired with dear old Dean.

Wea. SAT. NOV. 18, 1922 Ther.

Was allowed to see Miss Ward after breakfast - her mind is pathetic. Said good-bye, tried to catch where I got rid of my luggage when I dropped a bus & walked down to 8th St. to see Cooper Union Art School. Managed to get back in time to meet Beau & sit on a train for Princeton. Phil Drieser - old roommate of Beau, & my nice cousin Howard, artist, sat with us & were good companions on that never ending trip. Finally we got to the game - just after it started. Oh the thrill of the shouting voices in that big stadium! B. & I sat with Ritchie Boyd & his sister. Harvard game - Prince beat Yale 3-0. Gosh! where was Bubba! We had to get to Ivy Club. Luckily I met Leavitt & Bill Williams & her schoolmates & Lewis & Steinman & joined them. We missed the last train to Phila, so hired a car to Trenton - had hot cakes there & boarded a train to Lansing. Was dear, we arrived and had a jolly time. All were nice - never thought in my mind.

Wea. SUN. NOV. 19, 1922 Ther.

Slept well after warm bed during last night from Ma. Went to church with Dad & Ma - stop to get Red Cross outfit as the others & then met Charlotte at church. George was with her, home from Yale. And Bubba is here - after saying on Friday that he wouldn't be here! Well - so did I. After dinner at the club went back to Lathrop's room. Bubba came & took us for a ride. I sat in back with George & enjoyed it. But while Lathrop & George went to see Tony, B. & I went out on a road & he came to the back seat and was very sweet. Then we collected the apples again and after showing them after parking space along the creek, went to their house to supper which was very nice - Mrs. L. in good mood. Then B. & I went out near oak yard!! & parked +. I suppose petted, but it doesn't seem like that as he is so very dear. In the morning - glad I came home - & feel from the thing I was told after Dad & my friend against it in N.Y.

However, when Kate & I went down to Columbus & I saw at me, a very pretty evening dress, flutings & showed it to Mrs. Appel - not at home. Hoped to find Ma at Mrs. Brenneiman's - Ma not there but I showed dress to Mrs. B. & passed out my tale for your party about my N.Y. plans. Then Kate with Ma & Dad at the club. Later Kate came - Lottie had a meeting (also for a change!) so Kate walked with me out to the wash woman's. She didn't say what was the matter but before it's finances in the family so she may go to work in the bank. Poor Kate! I went back there again for supper - the bridging again with Mrs. Brenneiman. Seined yard until a few minutes before my dentist appointment & then rushed. Got stuck in the elevator! Then I went up to the Lutz's (help away) to get a book but really to get my cigarettes & holder. After lunch I went to Emily's. We went shopping and then went up to Patty's & got her to walk back with us. Had hard cider at Emily's! Left there to meet Dad's train - oh - his verdict about a Y! But it isn't settled yet, it all depends on Susan Marie's price! And now that it is more certain - I wonder if I want to go! No Thanksgiving days as I had planned. I wrote to Susan Marie and read Susan's "Book of Wonders" to Mrs. Rose. It, but does she? Does she really any imagination?

got up early & taught after little's Sunday School class.
Passed off better than I anticipated. Then I went to Church. Went up to the Har-man's afterwards to see Bob about the card game he wants to play. But Lottie at the apples, also inquiring for milk & walked home with her. In the afternoon went with Ma and to see the Apples. They were making delicious fudge.
Sig. Vick's puppy is huge.
May Taylor & her cute apple pigs arrived. That family with its animals is almost as funny as the Apples - but not so dear to me. Went to the Apples to supper. Phil was there & afterward Charlotte came in. Played geography.
Lucy is just the same as ever - glad she is here.
Ma & Phil walked home with me.

Wea. MON. Nov. 27, 1922 Ther.

Took around doing chores and discussing with Ma the projects of my winter in N.Y. In getting a little nervous, even for fear of Recked in to see that - but as he wasn't ready, walked home with Lottie instead. Then I marched up to the Hartman's to see Bob on business! But his scheme is too expensive.
Finally I met Ma for lunch.
Ma & I went up to see Sam but later those two went to the Amos & Josie's & left me alone at apples - but I wrote to Nell. It is snowing - beautiful soft white snow - like new to me. After dinner I dressed in my red & silver dress - a success!
To go with Jack Lonsill to a Monday night dance. He was fine & we had a great time laughing at Dan Rhoads especially. Bleacher & Charlotte & May & Phil were there & lots of others.
Not a bad dance for Lonsill!

Wea. TUES. NOV. 28, 1922 Ther.

Early today the letter came from Lucie Mama, but the price she wants is very high. Then - Dad said I could go any way - he & Ma would spring and they cried for they are too good, utterly worthless and - I can't paint.
However, it seems to be settled. met Ma at the dentist's - we did some shopping before & after lunch. Kate had lunch with us. I am in a rather dazed mood - I realize I'm in for some hard work. I've resolved not to touch a cigarette in N. Y.
- if Dad & Ma can give up things - so can I. But I shall struggle with them, yes, indeed! Went up to Apple & played bridge with Kate, Kate & Lucy. Then we went to the Red Cross office for Thos. Apple & I went home with Kate to wait until dinner time.
Came home with Ma & cleaned out my trash & put my summer clothes aside - Oh, they make me homesick for the lazy, sunny lotus-eating life I'm giving up.

Wea. WED. NOV. 29, 1922 Ther.

Ma went to Phila. with Mrs. Hartman - I wanted to go! But instead, I got diligently to work & went in to get Lucy to go shopping with me. After we had hugged out the town we went to the Y. W. to lunch. Oh, today I forgot to say that I got a short letter from Dublin this morning - as usual I felt it was coming. Well, after lunch I went up in the office Garrett & look for a lot of things I need in N. Y. Did find them. magnifying. Lucy came for me & all my bundles in her Ford. We went to her house where we talked & smoked & had a jolly time before she run-ned me home. After supper I got a sudden whack
- sat down & finished a whole skirt before Ma got home. & finished a hat to

Wea. THUR. NOV. 30, 1922 Ther.

Thanksgiving Day! Went to church with Ma and then went up to hear about the Charity Ball from Susan. I had to leave there to go to the office to a very delicious dinner with Ma & Pa - the latter a bit talkative due to cocktails. Then John took Mrs. A, the girls, little Billy & me out to the V. & M. Jethroburg football game. John had very good seats, and enjoyed the game thoroughly - score 6-3 favor of V. & M. When we went into the Kappa Psi house to see what exciting he took me home and I slept until time to dress to go with Fern Brinson to a Phi Kappa Sigma dance at the Brunswick. It was a peach - cute little favors and Fern was just darling. I should love him were he talking. Home 2.30 almost dead world.

Wea. FRI. DEC. 1, 1922 Ther.

Wrote letter from B. even shorter than the first! I got to work on a blue silk dress, and was interrupted by Margie Hopkins & Edna Everman, a cousin I've never seen before. In the afternoon I went up to Lillian to wish her a happy birthday. He played Russian Bank, the last for some time I'm afraid. Then we met Susan & went shopping, also stop to see Emily Clinard. Father treated us in payment of her football debts and then left us. So Susan & I got the Ford & some cigarettes and took a very nice ride - talking about her Phil mostly! Just Kate at Susan's & after all three trying to be comfortable in one chair, Kate & I left to have supper at the V. & M. When she & I went out alone, where she wrote poetry & I "idled my time" making the blue dress. I must have had a cozy time till 10.15 when she came.

To letter from B. Bah! Pa woke me up soon, went to dentist who kept me waiting & then must - everything to make an in a sad humor. Said good bye to Jane & Tony, went down & worked on some dresses. Had lunch at K. S. with Ma, Mrs. G. and Edwin. He walked home with me, but I had to pack. When that was done I polished silver & then packed that! Then I put some dresses & packed boxes. Finally I got to the airport. Kate & Lottie first came to Phil & Lusia. Then I went to Hartman & say good bye - waved them all - & to the others. After dinner at club I went to the revolving - nice visit - Marys & Brennumans - not at home - but I and finally to Mary & Phil again where I had my last cigarette. Home to pack.

Slept rather late considering I had to take a train to N. Y. Was rather sad saying good bye to every one. Miss Lottie & Sue at the station & my Ma. In my section on the sleeper sat Mary Barr, unattractive, whom I used to know in town. Pretty soon came Jack Evans & his sister friend Charles Tracy came & sat with us. We played spelling games & Marie handed me a nice line so we had a splendid time. Mary Barr & Tracy to lunch together & Martha Keller & Jean Rosenthal & Willie Nichols were also on train. Bege & Ritchie Boyd met me & brought me to dear Cousin Mary's. I have a big room & bath. We had tea & very attractive. Catherine Barr came to meet me. Cousin Walter C. Mary's brother, was here, too, & took me for a walk. Very cold, good supper. Wrote to Ma, talked to Cousin Mary & went to bed early - content.

awoke early as they are building in the streets. Nice bright sunshine. Cousin Annie & I started out to get them but I went on to the Student League. Monday was a bad day as I had to stand in line & wait to register them. I came home & unpacked at twelve we had lunch & at one I was at the school again taking my place in class. Again I spoke at Monday night that is when they gave the medals. Finally I got started and drew one of my usual sketches - of a little old lady. Every one else works in oils so I couldn't compare mine but I was told the teacher will be here to say something! Came home & have tea with Cousin Annie. Finished unpacking & dressed for dinner. Beau called up & I talked to Beaumont. Wrote to the family & the vic letter I got this morning. Candy in trunk! Nice

Wea. TUES. DEC. 5, 1922 Ther.

Walked all the way to Macy's to buy cheaply some material to make me a smock. After lunch I went off to school & waited expectantly for the teacher, Mr. Lukes. He came - a short heavy middle aged man, very dressy & unartistic! He is delightful in class - full of fun - not unlike Mrs. Fleet at N.C.S. When he came to criticize mine - the only pastel - he said it was nice, a bit tight but good color. Told me to draw little figures which I did & was pleased with. Walked down the stairs with him after class & out on the street he caught up & walked a block with me, talking & telling me he was going to see me about my pastel painting! Went home by his & told Cousin M. everything at tea time. After dinner I again wrote to the family and later Beau came to see me - talked business & pleasure. Very happy tonight.

Wea. WED. DEC. 6, 1922 Ther.

Delightful letter from Laurie & Fred. Received. The cousins are very much worried about a sick uncle, cancelled a dinner party for tonight.
Went to the bank with Cousin Walter, introduced to teller - I now have my own bank account in a real bank! (Clerk) Things are changing so, I have to pinch me occasionally to see if it be I! Took my usual front seat on the top of the bus, altho it is very cold today. The class was not meeting - no teacher today, but I enjoyed watching the other students. Phil Reynolds, my own first delight, was waiting for me at 4:30 at the school & we walked & talked. He left me, but I came all the way, nearly 40 blocks! Had tea alone. Cousin came to dinner - Cousin M. up stairs. Then B. & I went to my room for nice evening. Received.

Wea. THUR. DEC. 7, 1922 Ther.

Phil came for me to go to his apartment to measure windows for curtains - no yard-sticks so we used strings!
He is a scream - I like him now for we are just like brother & sister. We forgot the time so I had to go some place with him to lunch instead of going home. Then I went on to school. It snowed & a southern girl in the class was so interested
- it is rather novel to me, too.
After class I went to the Public Library where I met dear old Bernice & Sunday.
I haven't seen since N.
C. days! Lordy, we were thrilled. She took me to tea & then walked this way with me. She's darling!
After dinner I wrote a rather plain letter to Bessie & later Cousin came in to talk to me before going to a dance. Bessie is right,

Wea. FRI. DEC. 8, 1922 Ther.

Letter from Bubbie - just after I'd written - of course! Washed my hair, then went out to buy a new present for Aunt for Nell & a pair of shoes for myself - way down on 6th Ave. After lunch I went to school and Mr. Luke came again today. I don't know whether it was because of the disagreeable, cloudy weather or the fact that he had been drinking, but I did not enjoy the class as much as Tuesday. He still compliments my work but says I must learn technique!
Came home promptly at four & Phillips & Blum-son, distant guests, and going came to tea - nice.
After dinner C. - Mamma & I played Russian Bank & then I wrote long letters to Bubbie & to M. Gloringer, Mrs. Fleeth, and Mamma.

Wea. SAT. DEC. 9, 1922 Ther.

Sun shining, so felt better than I anticipated. Got to work on Daddy's necktie. Phil called up for me to buy curtains with him but it was too late by the time he got here - we rode around a block or so & talked.
Rev. Mr. Tynes here to lunch - cross-eyed priest who spilled his milk. Walked all the way to school. Beau met me there & brought Ritchie Boy & Bill Savage with him. We all went home shopping.
Bill is very attractive. They walked home with me.
Persian Mamma's step son, Allen Greene came to dinner & I replied giggled aloud - very old & silly & one big tooth!!
Beau called up - special for me up there from Bubbie!
To Ritchie Boy & said it when we came to read me to see what I'd say in the movie so have & to read - very nice.
And the letter just said "Bubbie!"

Wea. SUN. DEC. 10, 1922 Ther.

went to church with cousin Maurie at eight for communion at the "little church around the corner". At eleven we started out again - this time to St.
Mary, the Virgin, so high that I still smell of incense but the music & the church itself were beautiful. After dinner I wrote to Margaret Pates & Jim Hill & then Beau came to take me for quite a walk - he is worried for fear I haven't enough entertainment - but, lordy, I'm tired enough as it is.
When he left I went to see Helen Bellman - three blocks from here - great to see old "Lerr" again. Left her to come home & have some solitary tea & play my mandolite a bit. How am I? no, just content & full of Public thoughts. Sociable supper with the cousins, wrote to Olivia & Ma & retired.

much provoked upon waking not to find the "curse" but after I had dressed & gone out to buy some linen it came. I did not feel badly tho so went to school - two new novels today, but nothing to speak about. I painted until three & then met Mary & Truagh. We went to see a friend of hers - Dorothy Thompson. A very pretty girl.
Furriel Grant was there.
We did not stay long - they were smoking & I have sworn it off for six months - but Blanche & I came here & had tea.
She made a list with the cousins. Talked up in my room. After dinner played solitaire with C. M. & served on some mugs, handkerchiefs. Miss Foster Beau called me up - letter there from Bub! I wrote to Aunt F.

Wea. TUES. DEC. 12, 1922 Ther.

Stayed in bed all morning and got letter from Bubbie which sort of upset me - in fact, I slept a bit, but I guess it's my condition mostly - his letter merely proved that he is not as serious as I am - which is always a disappointment!! And I have the old feeling that he is not worth very much - another disappointment. Well, anyway, I went to school. Mr. Lums, perfectly sober, told me I made the portrait inscribed but paint like an ancient Persian! Then I went over to Olivia Johnson & went with her to the opening of the Ringore Gallery on 5th Ave. - Russian Sculpture & Russian Portraits. Very nice, but very Olivia-ish, and I was tired & sick at heart. Oscar came to see me in the evening after ^{solitaire with} Cousin Marie.

Wea. WED. DEC. 13, 1922 Ther.

Got a delightful letter from Charles Frasier again - I didn't know his last - and I like the spirit - would there were more like him - & funny thing! I haven't about him last night the old "Bubly" trick is evidently not confined to Bubbie! I answered it immediately. Poor dear Cousin Marie, she died - I seem to bring death - this is the third to the house I've stayed in!

After school I waited at Josephine Hartford's apartment to meet her & Blanche & J. Highly-man - 30 & 40 of Miami vintage. A cute little girl, Pitti, alias Eleanor Shultz was there too and a very droll in & altogether it was very jolly - I earned for a cigarette. Phil Reynolds came to dinner - only Cousin W. & I there and afterward Phil & I talked long & earnestly on sex - bah!

Wea. THUR. DEC. 14, 1922 Ther.

Went way down Broadway to my & Mary present for me, also bought some carnings for one of the girls. It is snowing again
- every thing white & wonderful. I went to school on the top of a bus - almost got snowed under but had a fine solitary view of the snow topped cars & hats. Lordy, what I love to ride up 5th Ave - especially by myself and just let myself & my imagination go with the crowds. Stop work early - it is dark - and walk all the way home. Wish I had a million as I went in the shop windows! Bea phoned after dinner. Read
"Cash" by Frances Runney, the niece who died yesterday. Then I wrote to Ma about going home & to old water.

Letter - even better - from Charlie

Wea. FRI. DEC. 15, 1922 Ther. 74

Got note from Lary Flynn in town & promptly answered it - I finally know a host of girls here. Today the Larsons are going to the ice, so I am glad I am invited to lunch with them. I had a feeling she would like be there - and sure enough, when I walked all the way to the League, I could not find Esther Huntington. So I went across to a barroom and lunched alone. Just as when I came back & she took me up to see Stuart - studying there, too.
When I used to pass at N.C.S. in class Mr.
Larson was very pleased with a head I did of the girl next to me - I seem to catch surprising things.
Walked home on foot &ore just and cut up my fur cape to make a hat!
If Ma could see me now!

Wea. SAT. DEC. 16, 1922 Ther.

no mail - Irish Public's write to me. Took all morning to finish that fur coat and after lunch when Beau came to go shopping wore it. My lord, the crowds! Beau had to push me thru - we raced all over the town it seemed to me - my feet hurt to begin with but toward the end I could have screamed.
Beau is so slow to make up his mind, too, that my patience began to wear out. But he is a dear, for he bought me a beautiful pair of wicker stockings, for which I was thankful. Then we came here to dinner. He seemed to enjoy the food, and the cooking was very entertaining. I sat at Russian Bank again & then B. & I talked. This is the second sat. since the death of my smoking.

Wea. SUN. DEC. 17, 1922 Ther.

Rainy - how I'd like to lie in bed! However, I boarded a street-car and got off at Beau's church just as he was coming along. Mission an sermon by a layman, Mr.
Sturgis, secretary of missions.
Went to the Woods to dinner.
The judge as nice as ever, but I nearly cried when I saw poor dear Miss Ward.
Took up endless names, for fun, in Social Register then Beau & I took a walk stopping at Juliet Bartlett's for tea - very nice, oh. I forgot to say - this morning I talked to Miss Gosling on telephone. I used to see a lot of her in Bermuda! After supper
- I sat too much till
I wrote to Ma, Charlie Prager (the last I'm afraid!) and Mrs. Apple. Dropped a note to Lady A. Wosites, then first many books to heart's content.

Wea. MON. DEC. 18, 1922 Ther.

a beautiful bargain one + then she got me a present to make, at a whole sale place - she's a wonder. We had lunch together at the May Elizabeths + then went off to school.
Sketches a cabman looking man with a cigarette dangling from his lips. By the time I got home there was a letter there from

And then I wrote her a long pleading letter + wonder why I want to go.

was a sketch of a woman red, bladed woman - a plump one + her rules says my color is getting better - sounds like her talking to me after a while attacks! On the way home I stopped at Lord + Fay Bros bought me some gray silk to make a new top to my new suit. At the time I got a telegram from Ma saying "go!" I knew I would get handkerchiefs I am making

Wea. WED. DEC. 20, 1922 Ther.

Mum says don't go to Kate's - now that complicated matters, as I'm not invited any where else! I finished the man pie - for Uncle Fred, too. I have got this week all mixed up in you, diary, as I have been so busy getting ready for Mum & going to L. I guess it was Sunday noon that I met & finally into took me to, & I was to get a book at a discount.
Then I went to school and pitched one of the girls - when I'd finished left & did some more shopping - dead tired when I got home. Dean came to tie up my presents & ship them and on Friday night when he came we opened his box - a lovely present for me & a box filled with all kinds of nice & useful things! I'm so selfish!

Wea. THUR. DEC. 21, 1922 Ther.

No letter from Mrs Apple. I don't believe I'll go to meeting things much again.
Rode in street car down to Dean's bank & shop in West Street for a card for him from me. Then I came back & wrote a special letter asking my self how I would like what will happen. School rather bored today - new model, merely a student who didn't do well, the other one's mother died.
Other Huntington came & we sat on the steps & talked. Rudy has a a cigarette! Went to many many clothing shops looking for colored garments. After dinner Daddie called me up!! Dean told me my address - damn!
However it was nice to hear him! Sewed all evening, completing a hat.

Wea. FRI. DEC. 22, 1922 Ther.

Got a letter from Mrs. Appel in viting me there so I guess I'll go. wrote to sister & Kate too all special, trying to clear up the mess.
Washed my hair & coat.
On my way to school I stop to buy a red & yellow jacket. I mean handkerchief. Mr. Lyles came to class today - and evidently still improving.
Cousin M. called up & say that telegrams had come from Kate & sister - fortunately Katie can't leave me but Kate is expecting me. When I left the building Mr. Lyles was also leaving so I went to medicate with him & then to Springton. Upon his request he is a doctor & now sells me "Nora". Made two weeks when I get home. Veen bought me a very ticket & candy.
Phil came, stayed long & teased me - but! Then I packed.

Wea. SAT. DEC. 23, 1922 Ther.

Got up before daylight. said good-bye to the maid - C.M. at church & took a taxi to the station where I met Phil.
As he had said, but not as I had expected! It was just lovely to see him.
We sat together in a coach and, I guess, I did most of the talking. I wrote a letter to you & he read it over my shoulder & mailed it in Phil.
Got here at 12 - red due to meet us so we went up to the Appels - honey up to her.
Bonnie called us. And, there we were, just comed by that delightful warm & friendly family. After lunch Miss Feveret & Missing & up to see Charlotte & Kate - Kate is for a because I didn't visit her. Oh, well, oh, well! Phil & I went to Phil Long's & sawer brant supper.
Bonnie was there. Afterward we went to - & with Hartman - some, then & I sang to him "Moley Dick" ^{then we} played bridge.

Wea. SUN. DEC. 24, 1922 Ther.

At five o'clock, Marie got up, but I "slept" on thru - Oh, Lordy, no, we got up at nine and fell + I went to church - Jimmy + I in my play without the family.
Then I met Marie + George at their church + we walked up to see Father on the way home. I kept a pologizing to Kate but she wasn't in that mood. After dinner I went with Nell + Mrs. Appel + delivered presents - some things I haven't done for many years.
When we got back, Pauline + Paul + Lattie had arrived.
L. was trying to pump B. No.
However, gave me a new present a really nice cigar case - and was important to smoke. And I gave him the book + tickets I had made. He liked my new suit - Lattie left.
Kate came and we all went to the kitchen + ate. Then Pauline went home + I wrote to C. Marie and he came back, when we went up stairs + we cleaned up our train trees! After we + I went out

Wea. MON. DEC. 25, 1922 Ther.

This morning at five Marie got up + I tried to sleep until seven, and sings, carols + rhymes. Then when they came back we opened our stockings - lots of fun - and then I went off to my church. All alone I sat in the old family pew.
When I came back we marched up to the Christmas tree and opened presents - It was such a nice Christmas time - so unlike my last few Christmases. And a little later Miss Lattie, Mrs. + Susan Jervin, and Miss Ly Bell came to a wonderful big dinner - had champagne, too - the only similarity with the last few Christmases. Then I went out to the Hopkins car in the street car. Top, dear Aunt Mary is sick in bed, gave Grandma + Margie + Jane their presents. But L. came out for me + took me + Appel + Kate + George etc. up to his house for supper. Then we played bridge - B. + I at different tables - Later I had to refuse to drink with him!

Wea. TUES. DEC. 26, 1922 Ther.

Kept with little Nell last night and the cats! This naughty family let me sleep, and by the time I fooled around dressing it was lunch time. I have a blister on my heel which Dr. Appel is kindly fixing, but I have to wear one of Lucie's mules. The girls - Kate & Katie appeared to play bridge when Bubbie walked in - did not expect to see him until tonight. Later he took us for a ride, and when he'd dropped all but Kate we had a quarrel almost, I threatening to get out of the car in my slippers! Lucie & I napped & bathed & got ready to go with Phil & Bubbie to Mrs. Brenner's dinner before her dance at the Stevens House. Don't beside Phil & lefty Lloyd, who used to go to Yeates. It was a marvelous dance - everyone was there, but Bob & I - damn fools - left at twelve & walked to the river until 2 which was perfect but when I got home - Mrs. A. & B.

Wea. WED. DEC. 27, 1922 Ther.

Lucie. I certainly did some last talking between 2 A.M. and 11 A.M. I dreaded meeting Mrs. A. - she used to love me, but now - she no longer trusts me, especially as she knew I had promised her not to ride at night with B. Oh, God, why did I do it?? I finally saw Mrs. A. who was merely cool. All afternoon was rather hectic - Kate & Katie came & we played bridge again but all our thoughts were elsewhere and I was wishing, wishing for B. to come. He finally did - just before supper & Mrs. A. got us & talked to us perfectly wonderfully & I felt like such a low-down cad. But afterward I felt much better. Bubbie & Phil came to play bridge and play now & then B. got thirsty & had to go to the kitchen and demand my presence. Oh Bubbie - your Code-girl is getting too fond of you.

Wea. THUR. DEC. 28, 1922 Ther.

Lucie and I slept like frogs until nearly twelve when Mrs.
A. awakened me & told me I was invited out to luncheon.
Lottie was there, too, & I started to be at the Hartmans & time.
Of course, I was teased - my "in-laws" - but I fully enjoyed it - especially afterward when Mr. H. & I picked Mrs. H. & B. at bridge. Then B. took Mr. H. & me & we picked up Lucie & went to my bank where I had to do an errand for Mai Montgomery - it was awful.
Mr. Jackson & Mr. Haymaker helping me. Then I had to go to Meber & B. & I picked out wedding rings! And back here - B. & I sat in the dark for a while then everyone left to go to a tea & B. went washing me & go somewhere, but I stayed & wrote to Ma, Dad & C. M. after dinner Lucie & I went with Phil & Debbie to Mr. & Mrs. Long's dance at the Iris Club - very nice. But B. & I left early & came here & sat before the fire all alone - wonderful! but I don't want to

Wea. FRI. DEC. 29, 1922 Ther.

As the boys left last night at 3 - it's longed this page! We B. & I really getting worried about ourselves & do we enjoy pretending so? Lucie & I slept late and I took some medicine - B. is given today, so I can rest! After lunch however I got Theodore to take me to some errands & then I went down to Emily Chinard and we fixed the baby & brought her up here to the Appels. She is a very little thing and a good mugger - we wish for one like her. After dinner, to which Phil was invited & I felt lonely. Mrs. A. told Tracy & I went to Harlytt's mother's Club. Mr. Clay of Yale spoke on Babylonian Religion. He was a scream.
He "chill dunn", including George sat in back - and then ate! When we went to bed I got a silly streak & turned somersaults. Regret from not seeing B.

Wea. SAT. DEC. 30, 1922 Ther.

Went down to see about my war stamps but someone got impatient and came back to find Bubbie was!
Haven't seen him for a whole day - you know!
But Mrs. Levin came in at the same time as we just had to sit & look the other way! But he stayed to lunch so it was all right! Lattie came in late and we played Russian Bank - I sitting in B's lap and shocking poor dear Lattie! So then we repeatedly played bridge.
B. & Nell & I went down & tried to break into Dad's office - in vain. After dinner Phil & B. came and a little later - John Atte! And he stuck & stayed until 12!
I collapsed when he left!
Then B. & Phil stayed till 1230.
- in different rooms. B. dancing Phil played music & she was so thrilled she made me feel a fool.

Wea. SUN. DEC. 31, 1922 Ther.

Went to church all by my self and Rod Eschman sat in my pew. Then I met the girls at their church & walked home with Lattie & George - Phil too. After dinner Nell took me in the Ford out to the farm and we talked long & earnestly. I smoked a bit but I can't enjoy it as before - isn't that sad? When we came back I took a nap until I heard B's voice downstairs. Later when B. & I were in the front office, Kate, Helen, Foreman, Lattie & George arrived. B. & I appeared & were caught at 60 when playing Atte using the full we again went into the office - Oh, Bubbie - love - I'm terribly afraid I really do love you.
I never get tired of you.
When we came out again the crowd was gone and Lucius Phil & we watched the New Year in.

Oct. 9 memo. NOTES FOR 1923

The silver which Mary & I were looking at is that left to me by Aunt Betty. There are loads of flat silver, tea services and vegetable dishes, all marked E. R. It gave me the queerest feeling - as if I were ready to be married. And then some of it is marked E. R. H. and I suppose I shall have to marry Bobby to make it work out all right. Too bad we didn't elope when he wanted to! Well, this silver will be nice in my "salon" some day.

This evening I hated Pete and wished he wasn't here so I played with Hugh only - Hugh did kiss me often but not as if he really cared for me. He isn't so nice as B. but, my dear - it's a good way Tonight when I was lying in Bobby's arms I gradually and yet it seemed sudden, realized that I don't love him any more than I love those various others. Oh, how, how, why can't you love? Is it because you are such a selfish little heart - always self - never a thought for any one else - unless in connection with self again.

I say I never want to marry - merely have one lover after another - and oh, God I know I do -

I want to marry soon and love my life and until there's not a drop of blood in me. Just love, love, love him - more than self - oh terribly until it strikes deep in my soul that he should know it - he must never know its full depth - I had hoped he would be that

Dear diary of 1922 - God bless you - and keep you for you hold the secrets of my heart - you have been a wonderful year. the "filling-time" episode with Bubbie and the gradual realization of all Bubbie-Lover means to me.
 Even now, I'm not sure but it is enough to worry me which is also bad.
 And you hold the memories of my first weeps in the last school - the good day when arriving for for three years I am sorry you have not lived to see the end of it - perhaps 1923 will not treat me so kindly.
 If she does, however, but shall be my calling card Bubbie-Lover shall always remain so and never be Bubbie-Lover. So be it in the hands of fate. Good-bye!

JULY

Horoscope — Leo — The Lion — Sign of courage, which favors men most rather than women.

Birth Stone — Ruby.

Men born in July are proud, conceited and brave. They have nobility of sentiment, frankness and loyalty; are liberal and broadminded and well liked, especially by women. Reverse in fortune will probably follow them.

Women born in July are generally pretty, lovable and well liked. Are generous, have lots of courage and are hardened to life. Possess a very quick temper, somewhat vindictive and revengeful. Are sympathetic, sincere and frank when they love someone. Their ideas are noble and elevating.
